

COMPLETE SERVICE OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WACO, TEXAS, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 24, 1915.

VOLUME 4, NUMBER 149

PRZEMYSL GARRISON EXCEEDS ESTIMATE, 120,000 SURRENDER

BESIEGING FORCES ALSO GREAT.
OUTNUMBERED GENERAL ESTIMATES—BLIZZARD INTER-FERES WITH TELEGRAPHIC SERVICE FROM DISTRICT.

CRACOW MAY MOVE ON

British Military Expert Stakes
His Reputation on Prediction That City Will Surrender in Next Month.
Others, However, Are Not So Optimistic.

London, March 23.—The size of the garrison at Przemyśl and the number of men who surrendered to the Russians greatly exceed all estimates. According to dispatches received from Krasnodar tonight, the garrison originally consisted of 170,000 men, of whom 40,000 were killed. Just under 100,000 surrendered when the fortress capitulated.

Owing to the blizzard which is interfering with the telegraphic service details of the surrender are coming through, but Lemberg reports that for seven days prior to the fall of the fortress the people of the town had nothing to eat and the Russians who took in large supplies of provisions were welcomed as liberators.

Dispatches from the same place say that 15,000 persons were found suffering from typhus or cholera and that the work of disinfecting the place is being energetically undertaken. The interior forts, it is said, were found in contact with a good deal of ammunition.

Everywhere in Europe, both in belligerent and neutral countries, the greatest credit is given the Austrians for their long and stubborn resistance, which has greatly delayed and interfered with the Russian campaign in other directions.

May Move Against Cracow.

Now that the Russians, whose numbers, like those of the Austrians, must have been greater than was heretofore understood, are no longer under obligation to invest this fortress, a big movement either against Cracow or in the Carpathians doubtless will be inaugurated. With their northern lines protected by the morose into which the greater part of Poland is convering during the spring months, the Russians are expected to throw all their strength against the Austrians and attempt finally to crush them.

One British military critic goes so far as to stake his reputation on the prophecy that Cracow will fall within the next month and that when it does or before, Austria will endeavor to conclude a separate peace. He is more optimistic than the majority of military critics here, who are of the opinion that Austrians and Germans will likewise make a great effort in the southern field and attempt to prevent the Russians from crossing the Carpathians or reaching Cracow.

Few Attacks in West.

Along the western front there have been a few attacks and counter-attacks, but nothing that in this war of big battles causes more than passing comment.

The lull in the Dardanelles continues, owing to the unfavorable weather, of which the allies are taking advantage to effect repairs on the Gallipoli, Inflexible and other vessels which suffered in the last bombardment.

Reports as to the effect of the big gun fire on the forts are contradictory, but one explanation of the fact that firing was continued from the land after the forts were presumably destroyed is that the Germans had brought down howitzers which were moved from place to place on rails.

The Turks have made another attack on the Suez canal. A small force which crossed Sinai from Bir El Saba, having been in the opposite Suez on Monday, the garrison, who numbered 1,000 and were accompanied by three German officers, retired for about eight miles, where they were taken by the Russian army, according to the official statement from Petrograd. The Turks were accompanied by several young husbands and were, according to the statement, "very brave."

CONTINUED ON PAGE THREE.

THE WEATHER

LISTEN WORM-TH RAM 15TH
MARCH ZODIAC SIGN—SO
IF YOUR BIRTHDAY IS THIS MONTH—YOU SHOULD BE A PERSON WITH LOTS OF PUSH!

Government Forecast.

Washington, March 23.—Forecast: East Texas and Louisiana—Fair, warmer Wednesday; Thursday fair.
West Texas—Fair Wednesday and Thursday.

Arkansas—Fair, warmer Wednesday; Thursday fair, colder in northwest.

Voluntary Forecast.

Fair and warmer weather is predicted for today by Dr. I. Block, voluntary observer and optician.

Local Temperatures.

Temperatures for the twenty-four hours ending at 7 o'clock last night: Maximum 57 at 5 p. m., minimum 32 at 7 a. m., barometer 30.15, humidity 43, wind passage 135 miles, highest 18 miles an hour at 7:05 p. m.

Industrial Relations Commission to Hold Hearing in Chicago

Chicago, March 23.—Working conditions, sleeping car porters and conductors will be the first of several subjects to be considered by the United States commission on industrial relations at a hearing to be given in Chicago, April 5, it was announced today.

Other subjects to be considered will be the relations between commercial telegraph companies and their operators and the strike of shopmen on the Harriman system of railroads. A hearing will be taken also at conditions in the Union stockyards in this city.

This hearing will be one of the last and in the opinion of the commissioners, one of the most important hearings of the series which has been in progress during the year.

Panama's Increase in Import Rates Interests Germany

Panama, March 23.—Great Britain is manifesting interest in what will be the attitude of the United States government in regard to the new import duties which the law passed recently by the Panama national assembly.

Sir Claude Mallet, the British minister to Panama has requested information on the subject from William J.
Price, the American minister here.
Duties under the new law will be increased in numerous cases as much as 50 per cent, and will conflict with the duties provided for in the Taft agreement, which fixes them at 15 per cent.
It is declared that the law was passed subject to the approval of the United States, which has not yet been received, strictly as a revenue measure in an effort to improve the finances of the country.

Pennsylvania to Increase Indebtedness.
Philadelphia, March 23.—The proposal of the board of directors of the Pennsylvania railroad company to increase the company's indebtedness by $40,000,000 was approved by the stockholders today.

CONTINUED ON PAGE THREE.

CHINA AGREES TO 5 JAPANESE DEMANDS REGARDS MANCHURIA

INITIATED AND CONCLUDED BY CHINESE FOREIGN MINISTER AT JAPANESE LEGATION IN PEK-ING—OTHER POINTS TO BE BROUGHT OUT.

POLICING CITIES WITHDRAW

Island Kingdom Will Not Demand
This of Republic—More Jap Troops
Arrive in Tsinan, Making Total Now
2,000—Rioting in South China.

Peking, March 24, 3:35 a. m.—Five articles bearing on the Japanese demands upon China were initiated as concluded by the Chinese foreign minister, Lu Cheng-Hsiang and Eki Hiroki, the Japanese minister at the conference which was held at the Japanese legation yesterday. The Japanese minister recently suffered slight injuries by a fall from a horse and his condition did not permit him to go to the Chinese foreign office and for this reason the meeting was transferred to the legation. All the articles concern Manchuria. China agreed to the following stipulations:

1. The Japanese government's consent shall be obtained whenever permission is granted to a subject of a third power to build a railway or when a loan is made with a third power for the building of a railway in south Manchuria.

2. The Japanese government's consent shall be obtained whenever permission is granted to a subject of a third power to build a railway or when
a loan is made with a third power for the building of a railway in south Manchuria.

3. If the Chinese government in south Manchuria employs advisers or instructors for political, financial or military purposes the Japanese government shall first be consulted.

4. The transfer of the Kirin-Changchun railway to Japanese control for ninety-nine years.

5. The fifth article was proposed by China and provides for the continuance of such treaties as are not affected by the present treaty.

The Japanese have conceded the point of a separate discussion regarding east Mongolia and south Manchuria, which were combined in their list of demands.

In the Manchurian group the immigration and land ownership clauses have not yet been settled but progress has been made. This is the case also with respect to the mining clause.

The Japanese government has withdrawn what is known as "Article 3 of the fifth group," namely, the demand for a joint police administration of "important places" throughout China and also has indicated its willingness to withdraw "Article 4" of the fifth group, which provided for the withdrawal of Japanese troops from the general group.

The Chinese government has received additional Japanese troops have arrived at Tsinan, making a total of about 2,000.

Boycotts by the Chinese on Japanese goods are reported from several places in the south, where it is considered that the Chinese are most likely to get beyond the government's control. A Shanghai dispatch says that rioting occurred within the foreign settlements on Monday night. Japanese theaters and shops were stoned. The police were called out and made some arrests.

Ferguson Proclaims Quarantine to Be Established April 1

Austin, Tex., March 23.—Governor Ferguson today issued a proclamation declaring that a quarantine shall be established on the Gulf coast and the Rio Grande border, effective April 1, and shall continue in force and effect until revoked by the governor.

The quarantine applies against all vessels, railroad trains, persons or things coming from places infected with yellow fever, smallpox, bubonic plague or cholera, and all places south of 25 degrees north latitude shall be considered infected, unless proof to the contrary be submitted to the state health officer and special exemptions be granted to such places.

The proclamation also contains the regulations under which vessels and trains from infected ports or points shall be admitted into the state of Texas.

Fifty-Six Dead and Twenty-Two Injured Sunday's Avalanche

Vancouver, B. C., March 23.—Fifty-six dead and twenty-two injured were the latest official statement made today of casualties in the avalanche disaster early Sunday at the miners' camp at the Britannia Mines, Limited, on Howe Sound, twenty-five miles north of Vancouver.

Among the dead are C. E. Copeland, an engineer of the copper and silver mine, and his wife of Seattle. One other woman, wife of a miner, and her two children, and three children of another family are known to have been killed.

Houston Newspaper Files Bankruptcy

Houston, Tex., March 23.—The Houston Telegram Publishing company of which former Mayor H. B. Rice is president and Jake F. Wolters is vice president, filed a petition in bankruptcy in the federal court today. Liabilities are placed at $27,652.28. Assets are estimated at $44,581. Of this $36,196 is personal property. Publication has been suspended.

Dardanelles, Showing Where Battleships Were Sunk

The destruction in the Dardanelles in one day of the three major fighting ships—the British Ocean and the French Bouvet—represents the greatest naval disaster to date in the present war. These vessels represented a total of 40,155 tons of battleship construction, and if to these figures are added the displacements of the French Gaoles and the British Inflexible, both of which ships were damaged and presumably compelled to return to dry docks for repairs, the total immediate loss to the allies reaches the enormous aggregate of 68,665 tons of warships. No such loss in any single engagement has been recorded since the war commenced. The waters in the Dardanelles are characterized by strong currents which run steadily out of the sea of Marmora through the strait of Gallipoli and thence down through the Dardanelles into the Aegean sea. The current attains to velocities of from four to four knots, and it was this current which the Turks availed of to launch current mines which would float down from off Chanak direct athwart the ships of the allies lying below. These current mines have all the destructive powers of a torpedo fired by a submarine. They contain gun-cotton charges, the same as operative mines, the usual charge weighing 500 pounds. The mines float along with the current and are invisible, since they are weighted so as to keep submerged at a distance of about fifteen feet below the surface. A drag attached to the up and down chain seems to give direction to the mine, keeps it in the current and prevents it from shooting off shoreward. Once the mines are launched fair with the current they may be depended upon to float true along with it, unseen and unheeded, and only needing the shock of contact with a ship's bottom to cause the fulminate of mercury detonators to function, and in turn to detonate the whole tremendous mass of gun-cotton contained within the shell case. No warship afloat has been built that can withstand the effect of 500 pounds of gun-cotton detonated beside her under water hull, and the effect is to blow asunder hull and bulkheads, and with even chances of exploding by sympathetic shock the magazines of the ship herself. This is just what in all probability happened to the Ocean and her helpless consort. This destruction appears to have been as complete as it was sudden, and the marks were indelible those of the deadly current mine.

OFFICIAL WAR BULLETINS

Russian Official Statement.

Petrograd, March 23, via London.
March 24, 1:05 a. m.—An official communication issued by the Russian war office tonight says:

"Our detachment which reconnoitered Memel has retired to Russian territory."

"On the left bank of the Niemen in the region of Mariampol, we have repulsed a German attack, inflicting upon the enemy heavy losses."

"On the road from Kildavara to Suwaki, near Pilsnizki, our cavalry, advancing by the darkness and a snowstorm captured a German convoy with a quantity of provision wagons. The escorts either were killed or made prisoners."

"Our artillery at Ossowetz has obtained successful results. The fire from the German batteries has perceptibly weakened."

"On the other sectors on the left bank of the Vistula and the right bank of the Narw, there has been no important change."

"In the Carpathians our troops continue to progress successfully on the front of the Duklow Pass to the upper Sani river, where they have captured up to the present 3,500 men, sixteen machine guns and three guns. Attacks by the enemy in the direction of Uzsok pass were repulsed."

"The commandant at Przemyśl, General von Kusmanek, accepted our demands for an unconditional surrender of the garrison. Our troops, who entered the fortress have taken possession of the fortifications and begun

TO DAY AND TOMORROW CLEAN-UP DAYS

Today and tomorrow have been officially set apart by the city government as clean-up days for the city. Clean-up and yesterday hand-bills were sent about the city to every household calling upon him to remove all weeds and rubbish from his premises and the sidewalks and alleys adjacent.

The must be done within the next two days, and penalties are prescribed for not obeying the order.

Today and tomorrow the city sanitary department will have extra men and teams in service to haul away all rubbish placed in convenient spot for the wagons.

Extra inspectors will also be placed upon the streets by the department. These inspectors will report all cases of non-compliance with the order. The city will remove free all rubbish except ashes, which must be disposed of by the household.

Health Commissioner J. A. Littlefield considers that the necessity for a general clean-up and the reasons for the city's measures to enforce such are sufficiently known to the citizens to require no further explanation. Every householder of Waco is called upon in the name of civic pride and duty to co-operate with the sanitary department.

French Official Statement.

Paris, March 23, via London.—The war office tonight made public the following official statement:

"In Belgium the region of Nieup-ort our artillery has destroyed several observation points and points of support, from which we saw the occupants take flight."

"To the northwest of Arras at Careny we captured a German trench, which we destroyed, and also took some prisoners."

"At Solesmes there was a fresh attempt at a bombardment, which was stopped almost immediately by our artillery."

"In Champagne the enemy bombarded the positions taken by us during the last few days but did not attack. At Vauquois near the church the Germans sprayed one of our trenches with an inflammable liquid. At this point our troops have retreated some fifteen metres."

"At Les Eparges the enemy made two attacks which were completely stopped."

"At Hartmannsweilerkopf, we captured a line of trenches and a blockade."

British Colonial Report.

London, March 23.—The British colonial office this evening gave out a statement dealing with the situation at Singapore where recently there was a mutiny among the Indian troops. The statement read:

"All messages from Singapore since the last notification show a restoration of normal conditions. Of those who took part in the recent riot all except eleven now have surrendered and have been captured, or have lost their lives."

"Five rioters have been shot after trial by a summary general court martial. One has been sentenced to fifteen years' imprisonment, and seven to one year imprisonment each."

London Press Bureau Report.

London, March 23.—A statement was given out by the official press bureau this evening telling of a defeat inflicted on a Turkish force operating against the Egyptian town of Suez.
The statement says:

"On the 22nd instant at dawn, one of our patrols discovered a party of the enemy near El Kubri post, opposite Suez. Shots were exchanged.

"Aeroplane estimated the number at about a thousand, composed of infantry, artillery and a few cavalry."

"The guns at El Kubri opened fire, and inflicted casualties, whereupon the enemy retired and formed a camp eight miles east of the Suez canal."

"Early on the morning of the 23rd a force under General Sir G. Younghus-band attacked and routed the enemy who is now in full retreat."

Burglar Suspects Kill Two Officers

Elmira, N. Y., March 23.—While trying to arrest two men suspected of recent burglaries in this city, Chief of Police Finnell and Detective Sergeant Charles F. Grady were shot and killed late today.

One of the robbers fell and broke his leg in trying to escape, but the other has not been captured.

French Colonel is On Trial in Paris

Paris, March 23.—The trial today of Col. Francis Desclaux, general paymaster of the army, who is charged with having stolen army stores, was devoted to the testimony of the servants of Mme. Bechoff, the wife of a German, in whose house the stolen goods are said to have been found and that of several officers and character witnesses.

The cook for Mme. Bechoff testified that she had heard Mme. Bechoff complain to Desclaux for sending the supplies to her home and of hearing
Desclaux reply that it was his affair.

The governess employed by Mme.
Bechoff told of Desclaux having delivered to Mme. Bechoff the uniform of a French dragoon. The governess said she could not resist denouncing her employer and Desclaux, as she thought the uniform was destined to disguise a German in order that he might better be able to spy among the French.

This and other statements during the hearing caused an outburst on the part of those in the court room and a threat by the colonel president of the court to expel any disorderly persons.

Disease and Famine Cause of Surrender of Przemyśl

Petrograd, March 23.—The lack of official details from Przemyśl is said to be due to the heavy snowstorm that prevailed yesterday, which broke down the telegraph lines.

It is reported, however, that nearly a quarter of the garrison had suffered with typhoid and scurvy. Although the rations were growing more limited, none but a few of the higher officers up to the end of January, knew that actual starvation was impending. The real condition of affairs was learned by the troops when an aviator who was starting with messages for Vienna was shot by the Russians and fell within the defenders' line. After that there was much grumbling in the garrison and almost a mutiny. Some of the Austrians slipped through the line at night and surrendered to the Russians.

The investing Russian forces increased the intensity of their bombardment and the strain on the defenders began to tell more rapidly during February. Many were made insane by privations and disease. The death list was very high.

Civilian inhabitants who had been unable to escape when the siege began swarmed about the forts begging food and refuge, but the commandant was unable to care for them. The death of two prominent generals in February from typhoid tended to weaken the determination of General von Kusmanek, commander of the fortress.

By the end of February actual famine prevailed; scarcely a living animal was left. For weeks virtually the only sustenance was obtained from small supplies of concentrated foodstuffs brought by aeroplanes.

A council of officers daily considered the situation but not until they were convinced that there was no hope of help from Austria did they reach the decision to surrender.

U. S. MARSHAL TAKES CHARGE DEFENDANTS IN ELECTION FRAUDS

FEDERAL JUDGE ANDERSON SAYS
HE WILL PUT ALL TWENTY-EIGHT IN JAIL IF FURTHER AT-TEMPTS ARE MADE TO INFLU-ENCE WITNESSES.

LOCKED UP, JAIL QUARANTINED

Held to Prevent Testifying in Vigo County—Number Tell of Repeating and Buying Votes—Negro Superstitious and Won't Sell Vote, but Takes Money to Eat.

Indianapolis, March 23.—Sheriff Dennis Shea, City Judge Thomas Smith and Street Inspector Alexander Ageel, alias Steel, three defendants in the Terre Haute election case, were ordered into the custody of the United States marshal here late today, by Judge Anderson for alleged tampering with government witnesses.

Judge Anderson also asserted that he would put all of the twenty-eight defendants in jail if he heard of any further attempts to influence or bribe government witnesses.

"I shall try to teach you gentlemen there is some law in this country," the court declared, after the jury had retired.

During the afternoon seven witnesses, six of whom have pleaded guilty in the election fraud cases, testified that they had been taken from the Vigo county jail on a writ of habeas corpus and brought to Indianapolis.
The arrest of these men appeared to arouse the indignation of the jury and he questioned United States Attorney Frank C. Dailey as to who was responsible for the imprisonment of the witnesses. The court then ordered that the seven men be held in Indianapolis and not returned to Vigo county.

Jail Quarantined.

Mr. Dailey said some of the prisoners had been in solitary confinement and that a mail box quarantine had been placed on the jail. He said he did not know if the health officer was mixed up in this dirty mess."

After a number of witnesses had told of repeating and of the buying and selling of votes Judge Anderson had the jury withdraw for the day and took up the question of tampering with witnesses. He related at some length alleged attempts to influence witnesses in the election case. He said that the grand jury and court since the beginning of the trial.

He then asked Mr. Dailey if he had investigated the case of Steel, and when the district attorney replied that two witnesses would testify on that subject tomorrow, the court ordered Steel into the custody of the marshal
until he could give bond of $5,000.
Steel has been at liberty on a bond of $2,500.

Judge Anderson after learning that
Shea, in 1909, ordered Marshal
Storren to take charge of the jail
until tomorrow when he would dispose of the matter.

The court warned the attorney for the defense that they should instruct their client not to take the orders of the court. A. O. Stanley, chief counsel for the defense, started to protest that he knew nothing of the witnesses' having been in jail when he was cut short
by the court with admonition that subject tomorrow, the court ordered Steel into the custody of the marshal
until he could give bond of $5,000.
Steel has been at liberty on a bond of $2,500.

Shea in Charge of Marshal.

Judge Anderson after learning that
Shea, in 1909, ordered Marshal
Storren to take charge of the jail
until tomorrow when he would dispose of the matter.

The court warned the attorney for the defense that they should instruct their client not to take the orders of the court. A. O. Stanley, chief counsel for the defense, started to protest that he knew nothing of the witnesses' having been in jail when he was cut short
by the court with admonition that
subject tomorrow, the court ordered Steel into the custody of the marshal
until he could give bond of $5,000.
Steel has been at liberty on a bond of $2,500.

Shea in Charge of Marshal.

Judge Anderson after learning that
Shea, in 1909, ordered Marshal
Storren to take charge of the jail
until tomorrow when he would dispose of the matter.

The court warned the attorney for the defense that they should instruct their client not to take the orders of the court. A. O. Stanley, chief counsel for the defense, started to protest that he knew nothing of the witnesses' having been in jail when he was cut short
by the court with admonition that
subject tomorrow, the court ordered Steel into the custody of the marshal
until he could give bond of $5,000.
Steel has been at liberty on a bond of $2,500.

Shea in Charge of Marshal.

Judge Anderson after learning that
Shea, in 1909, ordered Marshal
Storren to take charge of the jail
until tomorrow when he would dispose of the matter.

The court warned the attorney for the defense that they should instruct their client not to take the orders of the court. A. O. Stanley, chief counsel for the defense, started to protest that he knew nothing of the witnesses' having been in jail when he was cut short
by the court with admonition that
subject tomorrow, the court ordered Steel into the custody of the marshal
until he could give bond of $5,000.
Steel has been at liberty on a bond of $2,500.

Shea in Charge of Marshal.

Judge Anderson after learning that
Shea, in 1909, ordered Marshal
Storren to take charge of the jail
until tomorrow when he would dispose of the matter.

The court warned the attorney for the defense that they should instruct their client not to take the orders

Genasco

THE TRINIDAD LAKE ASPHALT Ready Roofing

Why not lay roofing that you don't have to repair and renew every little while? You know Trinidad Lake asphalt is "Nature's everlasting waterproofer", and gives life and resisting power to roofing.

Genasco is made of Trinidad Lake asphalt; and applied with the Kant-leak Kleet it gives years of faithful service. Costs no more to get Genasco and be on the safe side—it actually costs less in the long run.

We are ready to fill your order now.

Torbett & Germond Co.

WACO, TEXAS

INTERVIEWS WITH TWENTY PERSONS

In Alabama—Superintendent at Blassburg, Shoemaker at Codem and Carpenter at Boyles.

Out of twenty recent interviews throughout Alabama these are selected at random:

Superintendent J. T. Suddath of Blassburg, Ala., says: "For 25 years I have suffered indigestion, kidney, bladder and liver troubles, taking all kinds of medicine and never noticed any change until friends suggested I try Vitalitas. Thanks to goodness I did, for I am now getting well. Vitalitas is wonderful."

Mr. C. A. Mowry, a well known shoemaker at Codem, Ala., said: "For months I have felt tired and was badly run down; occasionally would feel as though I could not get out of my tracks. I heard of wonderful Vitalitas and after taking one bottle I felt better. It has done me a world of good and I think it a wonderful remedy."

Mr. J. L. Graham, popular carpenter of Boyles, Ala., said: "For eighteen months I have been suffering with kidney and bladder troubles, part of the time extremely nervous. Vitalitas is curing me, I am thankful to say."

Vitalitas is Nature's greatest corrective and tonic. A teaspoonful in a half glass of either hot or cold water should be taken three times daily.

Investigate Vitalitas today at Powers-Kelly Drug Co. For sale by druggists.

Woman Drowns in Well at Peoria, Tex.

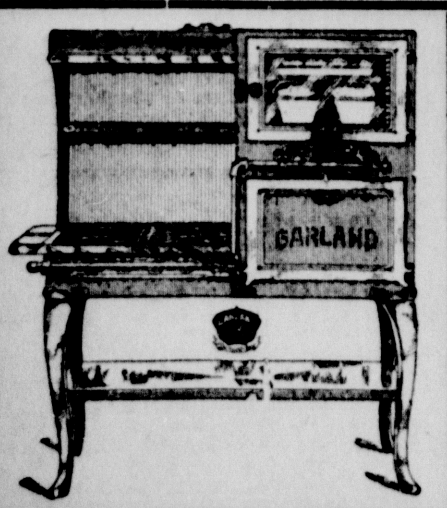

Hillsboro, Tex., March 23.—Mrs. J. B. Winters, age 48, was drowned this morning in a thirty-five foot well at the family home two and a half miles north of Peoria, the body being found two hours later.

Mrs. Winters, who was the wife of J. B. Winters, prominent land owner and farmer, was alone at home when the accident occurred and the finding of her body in the well was indicated by the pulley, ropes and buckets being torn from their fastenings. This led members of the family to the well in their search for the missing woman.

Indications point to the fact that while Mrs. Winters was attempting to draw a bucket of water from the well, the pulley fastenings broke and losing her balance, she was precipitated to its depths below, where she died, before her absence was discovered.

Mrs. Winters is survived by her husband and five children.

A Little Talk About the "Garland"

Do you know about the "Garland" features of Convenience, Safety and Economy—that have made such popular appeal to housewives all over the country—that have practically revolutionized cooking in the comfort and relief from useless work they have instituted in modern kitchens?

We can give you a demonstration any hour in the day, and especially invite every lady to see the Garland line. Ask to be shown the "Spit Fire" Lighter.

Do you want a maximum capacity—minimum space Cabinet Range for your kitchen or kitchenette? The "Garland" compact Cabinet with glass oven door is our latest departure; it will just fit.

"GARLAND" CABINET

132 Series—with glass oven door; enameled door panels can be furnished.

Note—18-inch elevated oven with broiler beneath oven. Four top burners and simmerer. Extra cooking burner in broiler department, with outlet for odors. Interior parts aluminized. Extreme width only 36 inches.

HERRICK HARDWARE CO.

U.S. WARSHIP TO TAKE MONEY TO YUCATAN

$625,000 NOW AT GALVESTON WILL BE CARRIED TO MEXICO TO FINANCE SISAL CROP.

IS NEEDED TO MAKE TWINE

Wheat Crop in This Country Will Suffer Unless Product Is Financed.
Labor Conditions Better.

Washington, March 23.—An American warship will take to Yucatan money to finance the movement of Mexico's sisal hemp crop, needed to make twine for binding the enormous wheat crop of the farmers of the United States this year. The money—$625,000 in currency, which manufacturers propose to advance to the hemp growers—is in bank vaults in Galveston, Texas, but until today no safe means of getting it to Mexico had been found. Secretary Daniels agreed to permit the use of a warship for the purpose, after hearing a statement by Edward C. Heidrich Jr. of Peoria, Ill., representing the sisal purchasers, who outlined the difficulties that had been encountered. It is probable that a gunboat or destroyer now in southern waters will be sent to Galveston to transport the money.

There is said to be some 250,000 bales of sisal ready for shipment at Progreso, the port, and Merida, the railway center of Yucatan. Since the United States government prevented Carranza from blockading Progreso, the chief obstacles in the way of moving this supply have been scarcity of labor and shipping facilities. A number of ships are now awaiting cargoes, however, and the labor situation is improving, according to reports to the state department. Arrival of the American money is expected to result in immediate further improvement.

Discussing the Mexican situation generally today, Secretary Bryan commented on conditions with a reiteration of the declaration that recognition of any faction had not been considered by this government. He spoke hopefully of the plans to insure transportation of sisal and announced receipt of an official expression of regret by the Zapata government for the murder of an American citizen, John B. McManus, in Mexico City.

Concerning conditions in the Mexican capital the secretary said no serious complaint had been received by the department recently. Asked if matters had progressed far enough in the revolution to permit to affect any change in the policy of the United States Mr. Bryan said that there was no change of policy.

"This government has not considered the question of recognition of any government in Mexico as yet," he added.

Reports to the department late today indicated that General Obregon with his Carranza force, concerning whom nothing has been heard for several days, had reached a point forty-nine miles north of Mexico City. Carranza troops at Matamoros were said to be in trenches in expectation of an attack by the Villa forces, who are about thirty-five miles from the city.

The local Carranza agency tonight gave out the following dispatch from Rio Grande City: "Defeated Villa troops arriving here say that Generals Garza and Ricard routed a Villa column at Guerrero in the state of Tamaulipas, inflicting heavy losses upon it."

The agency received the following from Vera Cruz: "Gen. Jacinto B. Trevino defeated the Villa forces at Ebanos. This is the Villa force supposed to be advancing from the direction of San Luis Potosi on Tampico."

The states of Jalisco, Michoacan and Queretaro are now completely under the control of the constitutionalist force."

Alvarado Seeks Reprisal.

New Orleans, March 23.—General Alvarado, the Carranza commander who recently recaptured the state of Yucatan, is directing a pitiless campaign of reprisal against the inhabitants and property holders according to refugees who arrived here tonight from Progreso. Jalisco, a town of 3,500 population, is said to have been fired and totally destroyed by his troops.

At Merida, capital of the state, the plant of La Industrial compania, one of the largest rope and twine factories in Mexico, also was said to have been burned. The plant was valued at $200,000 and was owned by American and British capitalists. It was declared that 20,000 bales of sisal were burned at Merida and that the troops applied the torch to several warehouses in that vicinity. Sisal said to have been destroyed was valued at $200,000 while the warehouses represented $70,000.

General Mendoza, the Yucatan state militia commander, has escaped to his work by next Saturday, according to the others, with few exceptions, were said to have either been killed in battle or executed afterward. General Mendoza was expected to reach New Orleans tomorrow.

The offices of Avelino Montes and company in Merida and Progreso, one of the largest sisal exporting concerns in Mexico, have been closed and the employees and their families were among arrivals here tonight to remain indefinitely.

CITY NEWS BRIEFS.

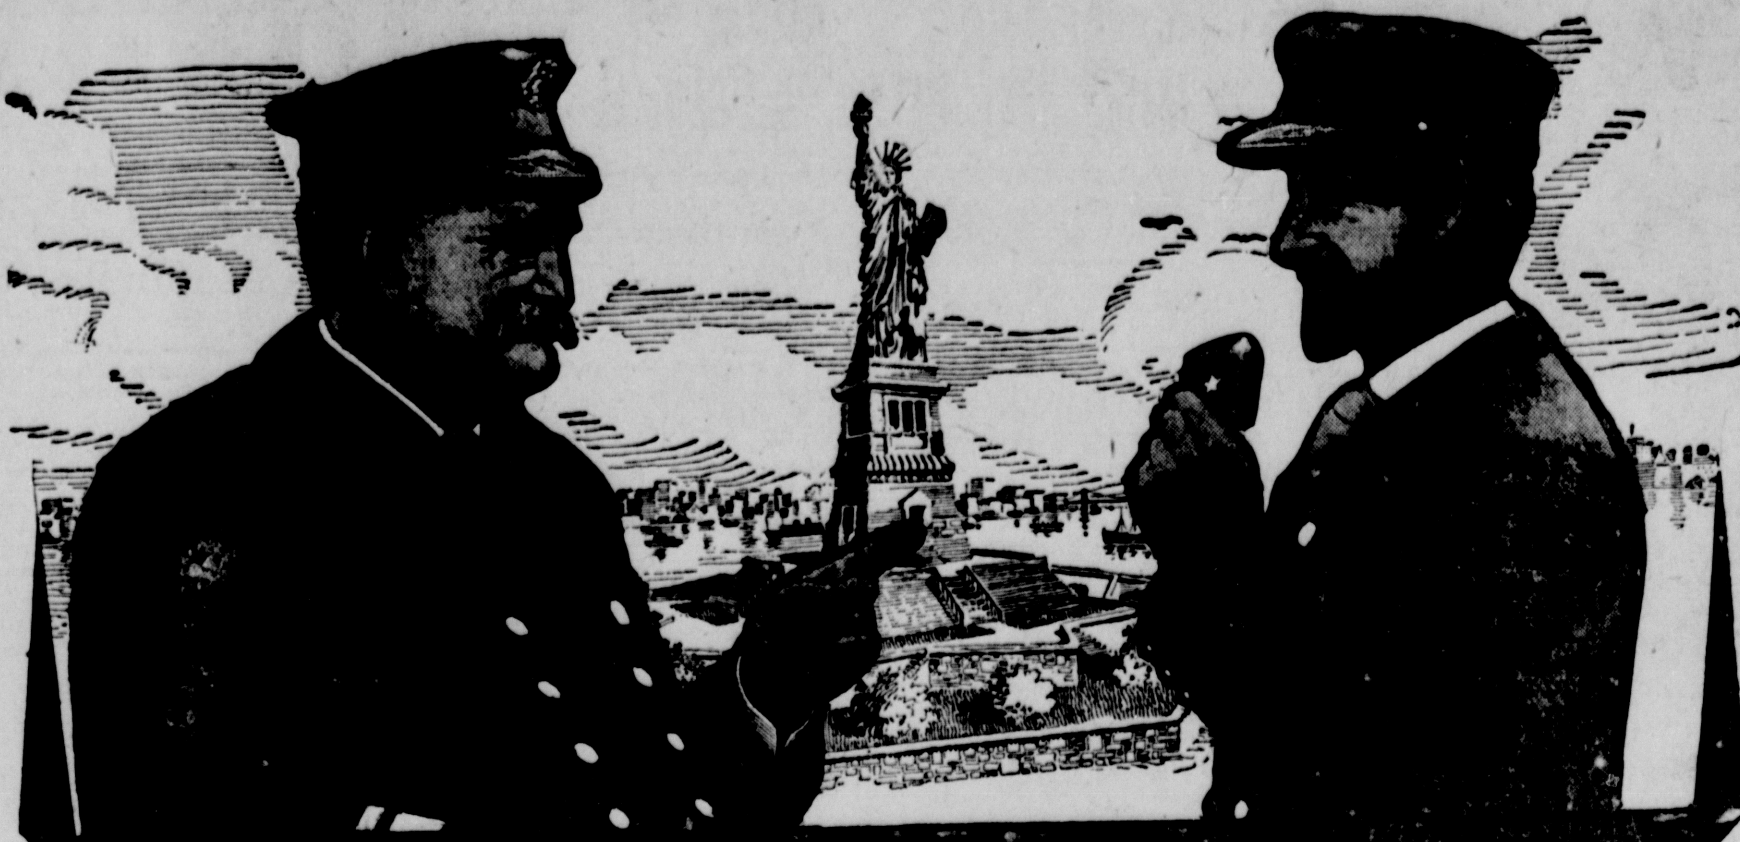

V. C. McClintock, indicted on a charge of forgery, and Pearl Lee and Lee Murray, indicted on charges of robbery, were arrested yesterday by Sheriff S. S. Fleming and his deputies.

The Wesley Bible classes of the Fifth Street Methodist church will meet tonight after the regular devotional meeting. A business session will be held, a program rendered and refreshments served.

Mrs. R. H. Berry, who is in Houston with her little daughter, Margaret, is improving, according to letters received here, but will probably remain there several weeks. She is with Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Berry in Houston.

A judgment for $212.36 against the Cotton Belt railway was given Ragsdale & Price yesterday in the county court in suit for debt. It was alleged that an employee of the company had purchased groceries for use by a Cotton Belt section gang and that the bill had never been paid.

Superintendent Evans of the M. K. & T. railroad probably will be back at his work by next Saturday, according to a letter received yesterday from him by W. A. Morrow, city passenger and ticket agent of the Katy lines. Mr. Evans has been in a sanitarium at Dallas for several days, following an attack of erysipelas. He was that no complications have set in, and that he is hopeful of returning to Waco Saturday.

"STAR—A Good Thing To Pass Along"

Men Who Chew Are Men Who DO

WHO helped make New York one of the world's greatest ports and STAR the world's biggest selling brand of Chewing Tobacco?

Why, those jolly "sea dogs who sail the wet seas round," who have an opportunity to compare STAR with tobacco in every corner of the seven seas, and who still prefer STAR.

Perhaps STAR's "bigness" (not in weight alone but in every way) appeals to men who love the "bigness" of the sea.

For STAR is big. Tightly compressed in its thin wrapper is three-quarters of an inch of the mellowest of extra long leaf—so thick that it won't dry out like a thin plug.

STAR isn't a 14 or 15 ounce "pound" either. Each plug is 16 full chewable ounces—a "ship shape" plug made clean and kept so. STAR is so popular that it never stays long on the dealer's shelf.

Perhaps you can realize what a big brand STAR really is by this: Last year's output of STAR plugs, placed end to end, would stretch from Liverpool, in England, to Kansas City and more than 317 miles beyond.

STAR
CHEWING TOBACCO
LEADING BRAND OF THE WORLD

Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

16 oz.
Plugs

10c.
Cuts

Woman Uses Mails to Defraud Many Would-Be Benedicts

Milwaukee, Wis., March 23.—Mrs. Florence Gambel, arrested Saturday near Beloit, Wis., pleaded guilty before Federal Judge Geiger today to having used the mails with intent to defraud, and was sentenced to one year and six months in the federal prison in Kansas.

According to the federal officials she would insist that railway fare and incidental expenses be forwarded to her before she would consent to making the trip to her future husband's home. In this way, it is asserted she obtained about $1,000 in the last few months.

Musical Courier Praises Kreisler

Violin playing of rare tonal beauty, musical sobriety and true poetical insight was that made manifest by Fritz Kreisler on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 18, at Carnegie hall, when the famous artist attracted a vast audience which followed his every stroke of the bow with unflinching interest and applauded him to the echo, says the Musical Courier.

Not often has New York heard a

Get Rid of Humors

Hood's Sarsaparilla Is the Medicine to Take—Makes Pure Blood.

Dry, moist, scaly, itchy, pimples, boils and other eruptions come from humors, which may be either inherited or acquired through defective digestion and assimilation.

To treat these eruptions with drying medicines is dangerous.

Hood's Sarsaparilla, the old reliable medicine, helps the system to discharge the humors, and improves the digestion and assimilation.

Get Hood's Sarsaparilla from your druggist. It may be confidently relied upon to do its work. It purifies the blood, tones the stomach, and builds up the whole system. It goes to the roots of diseases and its beneficial results are permanent. It sets things to rights in the system. Remember to ask for Hood's Sarsaparilla, because nothing else acts like it and nothing else can take its place.

No More Whiskey Ads on Bill Boards of Poster Adv. Company

Chicago, March 23.—A ban has been placed on whiskey and other spirituous liquors by the Poster Advertising company of the United States and Canada. It was admitted here today by Herbert Duce, editor of a magazine published by the company. Beer and wines are not included.

"At a meeting at Palm Beach, Fla., the directors decided that the display of whiskey advertising was inconsistent with the elevated attitude of the company in other lines of advertising," said Mr. Duce. "Accordingly, a resolution was passed by which no new contracts for whiskey advertisements will be taken after May 1. None will be posted after this year."

The company has members in 4,000

cities in the United States and Canada and is a successor to the Associated Bill Posters of the United States and Canada, defendants in a federal dissolution suit.

Lost—$250 horse. When last seen was hunting Golden-Rod. For sale by all dealers. Cornforth Grain Co., distributors.—Adv.

Jack Neal Appointed.

Austin, Tex., March 23.—The governor today appointed Jack W. Neal, of San Antonio, to be a member of the board of managers of the Southwestern Insane asylum. Mr. Neal takes the place of W. C. Rigby who had been heretofore named for this position.

Children Cry FOR FLEISCHER'S
CASTORIA

GAS COOKING DEMONSTRATION

Now Going on at Our Store

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO ATTEND

McLENDON HARDWARE CO.

THIRD AND MARY STREETS

When In a Hurry

do not rush home for the lunch that is invariably "not ready." Just visit our luncheon department, ready from 11 a. m. to 2 p. m. daily, and the cost 20c to 30c. For ladies and gentlemen.

THE GROCERY SO DIFFERENT

Caters to People Who Care.

418 AUSTIN AVENUE.

Combing Won't Rid Hair of Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

Woman Suffrage Fails to Pass in Maine

Augusta, Maine, March 23.—Woman suffrage failed to pass in the house today. The vote was 58 to 59, but a two-thirds vote was required.

The senate last week adopted the resolution by a wide margin.

Three Bodies Recovered.

Muncie, Ind., March 23.—Three bodies had been recovered tonight from the ruins of the county infirmary near here, which burned today. Thirteen men are missing, and some are believed to have perished.

"MY HEALTH IS PERFECT"

So Says A North Carolina Lady In Telling What She Owes To Cardui,
The Woman's Tonic

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Ada Hull of this place says: "About six years ago I got in very bad health. I suffered terrible pains in my abdomen and back. I dreaded to see the sun rise and I dreaded to see it set, for I suffered such agony. No one except myself will ever know how badly I suffered. The doctor said I was suffering as a result of the menopause."

"As nothing gave me any relief, I asked the doctor if I hadn't better try Cardui. He said, 'It might help you,' and told my husband to get me a bottle. At this time I was so weak I could not lift my head, and my voice was so weak, people had to lean toward the bed to hear what I said. I looked so bad and had such a dark color that I looked like a dead woman, and my relatives thought I would never get up again."

"I took one bottle of Cardui and it relieved the pain and suffering so much that my husband got another bottle, and that improved me still more. I began to strengthen and gradually got well. I have now had better health for six years, than I ever had in all my life. I have taken no medicine since, and my health is perfect."

"Cardui is the finest medicine a woman could use."

Try it. At drug stores.

For the best Dry Cleaning of ladies' and gentlemen's garments Phone

McGUIRE

We also do pressing. Work called for and delivered.

Old Phone 612; New Phone 2626.

721-723 Washington.

We Solicit Your Patronage.

SAVE PENNIES! A PENNY SAVED IS A PENNY EARNED

For 30 days I will give 1 3-lb. can of Gold Flax Coffee, 1 5c sack of Salt, 1 Writing Tablet, 1 bar W. G. Soap, 1 package L. H. Washing Powder, all for...$1.00

REICH PENNY STORE

Old Phone 1800 New Phone 2634
Prompt Delivery on Purchases of $1.00 or More.

NATURAL GAS TO BE IN MAINS NEXT WEEK

ALL METERS WILL HAVE TO BE READ UPON DAY CHANGE OF FUELS IS MADE.

Texas Power and Light Company Goes to Considerable Effort to Fulfill Promises.

Unless unforeseen difficulties are encountered natural gas will be turned on March 31, one day earlier than promised.

Some people are strong on promises. Sometimes these promises are forgotten. Other people believe in doing things without making promises. Waco is to be congratulated on having a public service corporation which makes promises and makes them good. Several instances could be mentioned in which the Texas Power & Light Company has made good its promises. It seems to be a habit of the company to do what it says it will.

When the question of a natural gas franchise came up there was much argument from all sides. What the people of Waco wanted was the gas. The city commissioners believed that the present company was better able to furnish this commodity in the shortest possible time and their judgment will be fully justified next week when the gas arrives.

The fulfillment of this obligation on the part of the company has entailed great deal of work which to great many people is not apparent. To begin with, about five miles of new gas distribution mains have been laid in East Waco so as to properly serve this territory. Other improvements in general have been made on distribution lines so that now Waco has natural gas facilities unsurpassed by any city in the state.

Another large task has been the changing of meters and the proper arrangement for accounts, this work being made necessary by the different rate for natural and artificial gas. The ordinary prepay meters which have been in use must be changed so that a quarter will make the meter run 450 cubic feet instead of 225 cubic feet of artificial gas. That is you can get twice as much volume of gas as previously. And since the heat value of the natural gas is more than the artificial gas can now get about four times as much heat for the same money. Furthermore, since natural gas will be turned in all mains on the same day it will be necessary to read all meters at this time as the rate will change on this day. This is necessary in order to give all customers the benefit of the natural gas rate immediately.

Unlike artificial gas, natural gas is odorless and is very poisonous. While there is absolutely no danger in using same for domestic purposes, nevertheless care should be taken by all using same. Rubber tubing can be used on heaters if care is taken to keep the connections tight but where possible these appliances should be secured so that insuring against possible leaks.

When it is discovered that there is a leak in the house, the first thing to do is to open windows and doors so that the places can be ventilated. This will let the gas escape and thus any danger will be avoided. The company should be immediately notified, so that the leak can be fixed. This is dangerous because a natural gas leak under the place or room where it occurs is difficult to locate.

Przemysl Garrison Exceeds Estimate, 120,000 Surrender

Continued from page one

ing to the British official account, routed.

London, March 23.—"Four thousand prisoners have been taken here," says Reuters' Kiev, Russia, correspondent. "They give a pitiable description of the starving condition of the garrison before the fall of the fortress. Numbers of the men, they say, were dropping from exhaustion, while others had not sufficient strength to leave the trenches. They ate moss and gnawed at the straps of their equipment to keep themselves alive."

Dutch Steamer Fired On.

London, March 24, 1:26 a. m.—A Reuter dispatch from Amsterdam says: "The Dutch steamer Mecklenburg, which left Flushing this morning (Tuesday) for England was chased and fired upon by a German armed submarine. Three shots were fired at the Mecklenburg but the steamer put on full speed and continued her journey to London."

"Owing to this incident, the Zealand company, owners of the steamer, hereafter will not transport British, Belgian, French or Russian men of military age."

New Zeppelin Completed.

Geneva, Switzerland, March 23.—The newest Zeppelin balloon to be completed at the Zeppelin works on Lake Constance left Friedrichshafen yesterday. Another new aircraft, the Zeppelin X, will be ready in a few days. Chief Engineer Durr of the Zeppelin works has been awarded the Iron Cross.

Says Life Insurance Companies Have Legal Right to Borrow

Austin, Tex., March 23.—In an opinion to the commissioner of insurance and banking, the attorney general's department today held that all life insurance companies have the legal right to borrow money; that a deposit life insurance company chartered under the laws of Texas has the right to borrow money and pledge its assets to secure the loan; and that the excess of such collateral over and above the money borrowed should be regarded as a part of the available or admitted assets of the company.

It was also held that a state bank chartered under the laws of this state has no legal right to maintain a bank at more than one place and a bank chartered to do business in one place cannot transact part of its business at a suburb or a city just outside the city limits.

If your family horse is out and down put him on his feet with Golden-Rod. For sale by all dealers. Cornforth Grain Co., distributors.—Adv.

TAKE ACTION IN CASE OF GERMAN STEAMER

ATTORNEY GENERAL INSTRUCTS PORTO RICAN ATTORNEY TO INSTITUTE PROCEEDINGS.

Legal Phases of Odenwald's Attempt to Escape from San Juan Attract Attention.

Washington, March 23.—Attorney General Gregory, late today instructed the United States district attorney of Porto Rico to institute proceedings against the German steamship Odenwald which attempted Sunday to leave San Juan harbor without clearance papers.

Under these proceedings the vessel may be held in the custody of a marshal pending settlement of the question whether she shall be forfeited to the United States under the recent joint resolution of congress prescribing penalties in such cases.

While the department of justice was considering the legal phases of the Odenwald case, treasury officials had before them a report from San Juan that fear was felt that both the Odenwald and another Hamburg-American liner, the President, might under cover of darkness slip past the guns of Morro Castle and dash for the sea. Secretary Daniels was informed of the situation and a conference with the president, Admiral Fletcher at Guantanamo was instructed to dispatch two destroyers to San Juan and the coast-guard service ordered the cutter Albatross, now cruising in the West Indies, to steam at once for that port.

Attorney General Gregory's action, indicating that the purpose of the government to undertake confiscation of the Odenwald by due process of law in the district court for Porto Rico, attracted much attention in official and diplomatic circles. It is the first definite action begun by the administration under the new congressional authority. It was explained tonight that the owners of the ship might give bond and secure her release from custody, pending disposition of the case in the courts, although it was not likely that such a course would be followed.

Officials are waiting for further information before taking any action under the criminal section of the neutrality resolution for violation of which the owners or masters of the Odenwald might be subjected to a fine and imprisonment.

The general subject of enforcing neutrality has been brought prominently to the front by the situation in Porto Rico. Although treasury officials are said to be satisfied there is no truth in reports of plans to slip some of the fast German steamers in port in New York and Boston to sea, conditions in New York are such that Captain E. P. Berthoff, commandant of the coast guard service has been over to confer with Collector of Customs Malone about possible measures to be taken to keep a strict watch on outgoing ships. It was learned that the particular fear now is that some of the smaller ships which clear from New York will violate the neutrality laws by taking supplies or ammunition and coal to sea to transfer to ships of belligerent nations.

For the present treasury officials do not expect to send more coast guard cutters either to New York or Boston.

One Hundred Men Will Take Part in Y M C A Campaign

A two days' membership campaign for the Y. M. C. A. will be conducted next Tuesday and Wednesday. A. R. King and Fiske Wright were appointed to take charge of the two opposing sides at a meeting held yesterday noon at the association building. There will be fifty men on each side, divided into ten teams of five men each.

There will be a meeting of the two armies Monday night, when battle plans will be talked over at the supper table. A special effort is to be made to secure summer memberships, the price for which is $3.

Taylor Oil Well is Gushing Big Flow

Taylor, Tex., March 23.—The Bowens-Witherspoon well is gushing a splendid flow of oil, despite heavy water pressure and the fact that the rotary is still in action. The drill penetrated sixty feet into the oil sand. This well is on the Fuchs tract, south of the Discovery well. Sand was found at a depth of 85 feet. All concede that the second well is better than the Discovery well.

Cow's milk brings indigestion, colic, and worse—sickness. Your breast milk is the right food for your baby. If you have not enough, or if it doesn't quite agree, give him

Nestlé's Food

Where one mother used it seven years ago, five use it today. Because with the wider knowledge of babies' needs, mothers know that Nestlé's is so near mother's milk the baby won't feel the difference.

In Nestlé's the curd of the milk is soft and fleecy as in mother's milk. The best cow's milk is the basis of Nestlé's Food—milk from healthy cows in sanitary dairies, carefully inspected. To it are added the food elements that cow's milk does not contain, and that baby needs—the things that put roses in your baby's cheeks and make his little body strong and healthy.

It comes to you a dry powder in an air-tight can and to prepare it you simply add water and boil.

Send the coupon for a FREE Trial Package of 12 feedings and our 72-page book for mothers.

NESTLÉ'S FOOD COMPANY, Woolworth Bldg., New York

Please send me FREE your book and trial package.

Name

Address

City

Current Events

IN WOMAN'S SPHERE

BOTH PHONES 1958 KATE FRIEND, Editor

THE WOMEN'S CALENDAR FOR THIS WEDNESDAY

The Mesdames Flora Cameron and Edward Bolton at home for Mrs. Frank Baird, 1223 Austin avenue; 4 to 6 o'clock.

Wednesday matinee bridge plays with Mrs. Louis Davidson, 707 North Fifteenth street; 3 o'clock.

Mary West Chapter meets with Mrs. J. Findlay Smartt, 320 North Twelfth street; 3:30 o'clock.

City federation meets at library; 3 o'clock.

City federation of missions board meets at the library; 2:30 o'clock.

Drive out for supper at the Steiner Farm, for Miss Abbott; 6 o'clock.

Elizabethans meet with Miss Margaret Minnook, 918 North Thirteenth street; 8 o'clock.

MISS DECCA LAMAR WEST FOR MRS. MAMIE COX

As one of the special courtesies to Mrs. Mamie Wynne Cox of Dallas, Miss Decca Lamar West was hostess to eight friends at the Glad Tea Room after 5 o'clock on Monday afternoon. This was just a sociable tea drinking with some pleasant music and a few women engendered. Special Waco post cards were used for impromptu messages to Mrs. Cox, these to be reminders of the pleasant hour during her Waco visit.

MRS. GEISEL INTRODUCED AT HOTEL RIGGINS

On Friday, the only woman speaker of the Flying Squadron will be on the platform. Waco women have heard Mrs. Geisel and they know something well worth the hearing will characterize her lecture. Mrs. Grace Wigley, who is especially interested, has invited a dozen of more women to meet Mrs. Geisel in the mezzanine of the Riggins on Friday afternoon. From there the party will go to the First Baptist church.

ANNOUNCEMENT LUNCHEON WITH MRS. BEN JENNINGS

At the home of their father in Bransville, Missouri, where Mrs. Ben K. Jennings has been visiting since the holidays, an announcement luncheon was given. Mrs. Jennings was the hostess. This brought the pleasurable news to Waco that Miss Louise Ramsay, who has more than once visited her sister, Mrs. Jennings here, will with the twenty-first day of April, become the bride of F. A. Hitzman of Fort Worth. This groom-to-be is also well known in this city, for it was here that he and Miss Ramsey met.

WEDDING CARDS SENT THROUGH TUESDAY POST

Mailed on Monday were: Mrs. Annie Roscoe Andrews requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of her daughter Mary Maud

Mr. Albert Westman Cline on the evening of April the seventh, nineteen hundred and fifteen at half past six o'clock Columbus street Baptist church Waco, Texas

At Home after May First Waxahachie, Texas

SPECIAL MEETING CALLED FOR CITY FEDERATIONS

This afternoon at the session of club and church women at the library, the report from the board of supervisors for the proposed visiting nurse will be made. The women on this board have attended three meetings of the commission on the last two days. They will bring back a full report of what has transpired. Also, discussion will be had over the next step to be taken in connection with the securing of this visiting nurse. The interest throughout the city, both men and women, is widespread, and it is expected that the attendance this afternoon will find many representative women.

SHAKSPERE CLUB MEETS IN REGULAR SESSION

The Shakspeare club spent its usual pleasant study hour during Monday afternoon. One of the most acceptable features was the excellent paper of Miss Roxie Henderson. In this, Miss Henderson reviewed the character of Octavia, that "gentle woman" as Shakspeare interpreted her. An invitation was read from the Woman's club for the Axon lecture. Also, an urgent letter was read from Mrs. M. W. Sims in complaint to the brilliant Waco women, and in hopes that a large delegation will go down to Bryan for the district meeting. Mrs. C. C. Garrett of Denver was a visitor. The club discussed the play of Julius Caesar at the Hippodrome, and agreed that all should see this wonderful reel. One of

THE FAMOUS GREINA GREEN NOW APPEARS IN WACO

The reference to the coming of Greina Green to this city, a famous spot so closely associated with Cupid and his capers. Indeed, "Greina Green" marriages were once world famous. In Scotland, all that is required of a couple who desire marriage is their mutual declaration before witnesses that they are willing to assume this relation. This declaration was generally made to a blacksmith at the village, by clappers from England, where the laws of marriage were more strict. Any couple who wanted to do away with the "three times publishing of the banns," and the fees for priest and license, skipped across the border into Scotland and were married at Greina Green.

The writer had heard of this spot, so closely allied to romance; she had heard, too, of Crabbe's tale founded on the incidents of Greina Green. In all, this place had become associated with romance long, long ago. What was the surprise to see the actual Greina Green and the little village station last summer. Just a charmingly idyllic bit of landscape, one small station house, and a sprinkling of thatched farm cottages, this was the spot made so famous for "Greina Green" marriages. It is in Scotland, just across the English border.

Society Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lacy are due from their trip to Panama with Saturday.

Mrs. Alfred Abel is due at home from New Orleans within the present week.

Does it not seem strange to hear not one single soul discussing Europe for this summer?

Visitors from the surrounding towns are coming to attend the lectures from the Flying Squadron.

Within a short while Mrs. Fred Robinson will exchange her apartment at Streeter Place for rooms at the Savoy, North Sixth street.

Now is the time to be economical and save the nickel from the fly swatter. Destroy the place where the fly will breed this very day.

Have you caught step with keeping to the right down town? If you have you are doing a part towards giving Waco another city custom.

Mrs. Coke Horne of the South Side has been in Temple for the past few days. This is to be with Mr. Horne, who is in a Temple sanitarium.

While you are out in the yard, look about and see if there is not some place where the very hot water for a few minutes and then dipping into cold?

When Martha Custis married the list in her trousseau called for "one fashionable hat or bonnet." What would the girl of today say to such an order "one lone lorn hat?"

Mrs. C. C. Garrett of Denver, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. F. E. McPeak, out on Herring avenue, was a welcome the details in study found impromptu essays on Pompey, one of the minor characters of the play, Antony and Cleopatra. An invitation was also extended for Dr. Geisel's address with the Flying Squadron. The club finds a constant surprise in passages which lead into discussion of every day topics. For instance, who would have thought Antony and Cleopatra with its scenes laid before Christ, could find a situation exactly the same as England's present warning to America against sending supplies to Germany? Such discussions make Shakespeare not only the gem of literary culture but puts the women into touch with world affairs of this present day century.

THE CITY FEDERATION IN GENERAL INVITATION

The club women within the city federation extend general invitation to all Waco women for the library this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Aside from some routine business, the federation will have Dr. Scott of Temple in his address, "What the Public Ought to Know About Cancer." Since the Waco women have their attention so generally turned towards the health of this city, particularly the preventive measures, this address of Dr. Scott will be something worth the hearing. Mrs. Fred Robinson as president will introduce other speakers and topics to make an interesting afternoon for the club women and their guests.

COURTESY TO MRS. BAIRD HAS BEEN SHOWN DAILY

The short visit among her old home friends is finding Mrs. Frank Baird in continuing demand. In keeping with the Lenten tide these courtesies are rather informal, yet each brings the glimpse of former friends and passes a pleasant hour for the popular visitor. Tuesday, Mrs. Frank Miller was luncheon hostess in quite the informal way.

Tuesday afternoon found a few intimates enjoying a cup of tea with Mrs. Baird. Mrs. Shapley Ross was the hostess.

On Friday, Mrs. Albert Clifton entertains with a luncheon. For this invitation were issued Tuesday.

Tuesday evening gave a dinner and parlor dance for Mrs. Baird. Mr. and Mrs. William Waldo Cameron opened their home in courtesy to their sister.

THE CAST FOR THE MIKADO IS ALREADY FORMED

The promoters for the Mikado Baylor benefit is moving rapidly. Already, the special assignments are made. Mrs. Howard Mann will coach the cast as well as playing the role of Katisha, that wonderful woman with the left shoulder blade and elbow which people traverse the globe to see. The Mikado himself will be Charles Smith. The high and mighty Kokoi is A. C. Upleger. John De Heck is Nanki Poo. J. D. Isaak is Pooh Bah and Pish Tush is Clyde Ryburn. The three little maids from school, Yum Yum Pitt, Sing and Gladys. Mrs. Mesdames Ben Duncan, Sallie Keith and Fern Thurman. Miss Marian Duncan is stage manager, assisted by Holt Massey. Miss Amelia Lewine will be pianist for the rehearsals. It is hoped that Professor Eggert may be able to direct the ensemble. In the meantime, the male and the female choruses will rehearse in detachment until ready for the grand ensemble of cast and chorus.

How You Can Quickly Remove Hairy Growths

(Aids to Beauty.)

A well known beauty specialist advises this treatment for the removal of hair from the face. Mix into a paste some powdered delatone and water, apply to hairy surface and after about 2 minutes rub off, wash the skin and every trace of hair has vanished. This method is quick and entirely safe. To avoid disappointment, however, be sure to make certain you get genuine delatone.

Called from Big Springs owing to the illness of her father, S. P. McLendon.

Mrs. O. E. Wood has returned home to Dallas. She had been the guest of Mrs. F. J. Wood, South Fifth street.

Mrs. J. E. Horne of the South Side who went down to Temple for the McCelvey funeral, will be at home today.

Miss Helen Abbott, the present guest of Mrs. J. W. Hale, Washington street, is leaving for her home in Cheyenne with Thursday.

Mrs. H. P. Chamberlain of the Terrace is leaving today to spend a few days with Mrs. Harry Chamberlain in her country home.

Among today's homecomings will be that of Mrs. Mamie Wynne Cox for Dallas. She has been the early week guest of Mrs. Fred Robinson, Streeter place.

Invigorating to the Pate and Sickly The Old standard general strengthening tonic, GROVES' STABLETLESS CHILL TONIC, drives out Malaria, enriches the blood, and builds up the system. A true tonic. For adults and children. 50c.

When human brains become more enlivened the more they might possibly be a feed made to equal Golden-Rod. For sale by all dealers. Cornforth Grain Co., distributors.—(Adv.)

Your dead cows and horses hauled from Leave orders at city hall, call old phone 887, or new phone 2492Z.—(Adv.)

DR. L. S. DOWNS, Successor to C. D. Hudson. 503 Peerless. Residence Riggins Hotel (Adv.)

We Want Everybody in Waco and Vicinity

to understand that we are now issuing cash receipts at our Soda Fountain cash register. In other words, for everything purchased at the Soda Fountain you receive a cash receipt issued by the cashier. These cash receipts are good for the various premiums as shown on our premium list. We are now featuring KITES for the boys, all obtainable by presenting the cash receipts as stated above. Our Soda Water coupon books at $1 each are good for $1.25 worth of anything served at our soda fountain. With each coupon book a $1 cash receipt is issued to the customer. Please do not forget these facts and act accordingly.

MORRISON'S "OLD CORNER"

The Biggest and the Best in Texas.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

For the best Dry Cleaning of ladies' and gentlemen's garments Phone

McGUIRE

We also do pressing. Work called for and delivered.

Old Phone 612; New Phone 2626.

721-723 Washington.

We Solicit Your Patronage.

SAVE PENNIES! A PENNY SAVED IS A PENNY EARNED

For 30 days I will give 1 3-lb. can of Gold Flax Coffee, 1 5c sack of Salt, 1 Writing Tablet, 1 bar W. G. Soap, 1 package L. H. Washing Powder, all for...$1.00

REICH PENNY STORE

Old Phone 1800 New Phone 2634
Prompt Delivery on Purchases of $1.00 or More.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

For the best Dry Cleaning of ladies' and gentlemen's garments Phone

McGUIRE

We also do pressing. Work called for and delivered.

Old Phone 612; New Phone 2626.

721-723 Washington.

We Solicit Your Patronage.

PICTORIAL REVIEW TAILORED DRESSES

are justly famous all over the United States.

Among the APRIL Patterns, now on sale, you will find a wonderful selection of plain, simple dresses, good for serge, linen or cotton, also a large variety of EMPIRE STYLES.

Guimpe 6135 Skirt 6094 Guimpe 6135 Overdress 6137 Costume 6139 Costume

WACO MORNING NEWS

Published every morning by the Southern Publishing Company.
Office of Publication 614 Franklin Street.

MEMBER ASSOCIATED PRESS

Entered at the Waco Postoffice as second-class matter.

Foreign Advertising Representatives—
Knull-Chamberlain-Hunter, Inc., 1028 People's Gas Bldg., Chicago, Ill.
Knull-Chamberlain-Hunter, Inc., 627 Brunswick Bldg., New York City.

AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATION

Terms of Subscription.

By mail—
1 month, Daily and Sunday.....$.45
2 months, Daily and Sunday.....$.80
3 months, Daily and Sunday.....$ 1.20
6 months, Daily and Sunday.....$ 2.25
12 months, Daily and Sunday.....$ 4.00
By carrier in city of Waco, per month.....$.60

Notice to Subscribers: The hands of independent carriers, who buy their papers at wholesale prices. Subscriptions are due them, not The Waco Morning News. They are under heavy bond, not only to give the best delivery service, but to pay for their papers each month. Their remuneration is the difference between the wholesale price and the retail price which they receive from subscribers. This margin of profit is such that they cannot afford to extend credit, except month by month. They are not required, and they are advised against delivering the paper to anyone who does not pay in accordance with the above subscription terms. These carriers are all earnest, hard working men and they will appreciate any courtesy shown them.

The Morning News should be delivered throughout the City of Waco by 6:30 a. m., and subscribers failing to receive the paper at that time will confer a favor by phoning the Circulation Department, both phones 1122, and a copy will be sent by special messenger.

Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporation which may appear in the columns of The Morning News will be gladly corrected upon its being brought to the attention of the management.

LIMIT THE FILIBUSTER.

The Morning News regrets to have to take a position that might be misconstrued into the semblance of an attack upon the privilege of free speech or free debate, for with these prerogatives we are as heartily in sympathy as with that equally important privilege of a free press. But when we review the distorted ends to which the privilege of unlimited debate has been put by factional filibusters in the United States senate we believe the time has come for calling a halt upon such procedure.

Use of the filibuster by a minority in the closing days of the recent session of congress defeated not only the ship purchase bill, but the ratification of important treaties and other matters that were due to come before the senate, as well as made impossible a proper examination of the appropriation bill.

We would not infringe upon the rights of the minority, but neither would we permit a minority, which has lost the confidence of the people for the time being, to finally defeat the will of the majority and thus override its rights, especially when the majority represents the latest expression of the people on matters of legislation and is pledged to the people to carry out a particular legislative program. That program may not be the best thing for the country in the eyes of the minority, but if the people have expressed a preference for the platform of the majority then it should be given an opportunity to put that platform into execution in spite of the partisan or factional objections of the opposition.

There should be plenty of time allowed for discussion of the merits and demerits of proposed legislation, but the liberty of debate is one thing and the abuse of that liberty quite another. Discussion ceases to be debate when the speakers hold the floor merely to kill time and prevent the passage of a measure, and utilize that time for bringing into the discussion entirely irrelevant matters and for reading into the record documents of considerable length which have no other purpose than the consumption of time and killing the measure before the body. The transgression of the country's business is far more important than that the minority party should have an opportunity to gain a factional advantage, and we are surprised that the United States senate, through an exaggerated sense of senatorial courtesy, should cling to a system that was inaugurated when the senate was small, the matters coming before it not so numerous, and senators fought out their differences upon principles and not upon technicalities.

None of our state senates employs the unlimited debate. Had such been the custom in Texas we would have never gotten a compulsory school attendance law this year, and other wholesome measures would die on the calendar simply because the representatives of special interests blocked them through talking against them until the hour for adjournment had come. In none of the legislative bodies of the large European governments does this rule of minority prevail and we see no reason why such a custom should be longer maintained in the United States.

We do not agree with Senator Owen of Oklahoma that the president should call a special session of the senate in October for the purpose of passing a cloture rule and ratifying two pending treaties, but we do believe that the rule of unlimited debate should be modified during the regular session that convenes in December. Such a proposition will meet with stubborn opposition, but no reform comes without a fight, and this, like other reforms that are of real value, is worth fighting for.

Conservation of some of this surplus chilled air, subject to release next summer at so much per whiff, offers an opportunity for some of our unemployed friends.

Our compliments to Miss East Texas Strawberry, who, according to press advices, has come through the cold spell without allowing Jack Frost to kiss her.

A WOMAN'S WAY.

It is hard for us to contemplate any method for repopulating a country that has sacrificed its best manhood to the god or demon of war, but following the discussion in these columns yesterday of the horrible methods that are being resorted to by the warring nations in the hope of raising up more boys to bear arms in the future, it is refreshing to find a more humane and moral way of meeting the same end.

And like so many other good things this world enjoys, the suggestion comes from a woman, the Mother Empress of Germany. At her suggestion the reichstag has provided national institutions for baby culture, with the result that unlike thousands of babies that have been dying heretofore, their successors will live and possibly develop into mature manhood and womanhood. Some parents would rather their sons would die in infancy than that they grow to maturity and be slain on the battlefield. But if Germany is now interested in the conservation of her children for military reasons it is not possible that within a generation, say by the time the baby boy of today shall become old enough to shoulder arms in his country's defense, that Germany and other nations will not have learned to conserve their adults for the industries of peace rather than the cruel game of war?

But it is worth while that we get a glimpse of the disposition of the Kaiserin and it is furnished in the following extract from an article in the April Pictorial Review by Mabel Potter Daggett:

"Those soldiers who but just now went down Unter den Linden, would live their day and pass away, and there must be more to stand by their guns. The state needs men who bear arms. But before that, it needs women who bear children. Every government of Europe has recently faced the conclusion that the one service is as important as the other. But it is Germany that has led all the rest in its recognition of maternity. Today, not a peasant's child may be born to pass away among the mortality returns without the Kaiser's notice.

"Fewer of these peasant's children were being born than use to be. It was not so much when some one brought to the Emperor of all the Germans word of that officer's wife, overheard at a court reception to declare that she did not intend to present the Empire with any more soldiers. The ruling classes were, after all, not the bone and sinew of the nation. It was not so much when finally the doors of the universities swung open to admit women who went in for Ph.D.'s instead of babies. What were these but a few intellectuals? Thank God for all of the women with more heart than brains. But it was a great deal when the declining birth-rate returns began to show up the blackest in those provinces where the Social Democrats were strongest. The woman with the broom, the woman with the hoe working barelegged in the beet fields, the woman standing long hours at the wheel of industry in the factories, these looking down the misery of the years that must be for their children and their children's children, had decided to limit the anguish of living. Word came at last that a nineteenth century birth-rate of four hundred and twenty-three per ten thousand inhabitants had dropped to the twentieth century rate of two hundred and ninety-one, and of these scarcer and therefore more valuable babies, one out of five was being lost before it had completed its first year of life.

"The Reichstag faced a national dilemma. A country celebrated for its conservation of all natural resources, could not acquiesce in such economic waste. The clergy were called on. But in vain did they exhort the women to return to old ideals of duty. Even a troubled Emperor paced his palace floors and knotted his brows in despair. It was then that some one touched his hand and said: 'Dear, what's the matter?' He told her. And it was she who found the way for the German nation. Her silver wedding anniversary had come. Sixty million loyal subjects were asking through a parliamentary delegation what the Kaiserin would have by way of a gift. She asked for neither castles nor jewels. Even the churches she is famous for founding were never mentioned. She sent back word that what she wanted to commemorate her twenty-five years of married life was a great institution that should centralize the efforts of scientists and sociologists to improve the conditions of maternity and infancy throughout the kingdom.

"She linked her arm in that of the Kaiser as they stood in the palace nursery overlooking the Schlossplatz in Berlin. From this now silent room seven babies had grown up and gone the way of their own lives as princess and princes of the realm. The woman who had brought them into being knew more about maternity than all the counselors of state. The Kaiser had found the right adviser. It is she more than any other person who has shaped the policy of the Empire in its provisions for childbirth. With her own motherhood well in hand, she is now devoting herself to motherhood."

With the Flying Squadron of prohibition orators, Fritz Kreisler, the violinist, and Dr. Anna Howard Shaw the suffragist, all in Waco within five days, there can be no complaint of monotony in this city.

There may be some diversity of opinion as to whether the city can afford to employ a nurse, but if the meetings of the commission become much more spirited an emergency nurse may be needed.

Since the display of pyrotechnics at the city commission meeting Monday we renew our suggestion that the fire insurance policies on the city hall should be increased.

Don't wait until next Christmas to play the role of Good Fellow.

WEAKNESS OF THE LAND HEARING.

Further than emphasizing the fact that there is a tenant problem of large proportions in this country, and that this problem has numerous contributing causes, little good was accomplished by the hearing on the land problem at Dallas last week before the federal commission on industrial relations.

In spite of the large volume of the record which was made at the hearing, little more was done than to merely touch the surface. Numerous things that possibly affect the tenant problem were hinted at from time to time, but the testimony upon no point was at all conclusive, many of the witnesses testifying before that body were not wholly representative of their class, and more classes of tenants exist than the one represented by a particular witness who was heralded as a type of the tenant farmer class as a whole in this state.

Upon the testimony that was taken by this commission, no member of which originally knew anything at first hand of the problem it was designated to investigate, no final conclusions can be reached, and no definite solution of any of the contributing causes that prevent the success of the tenant farmer can be derived. The report of the testimony will make several volumes that will be handsomely bound and laid away in the library and there candidates for doctor's degrees may go in search of data upon which to base their theses. But for the investigation to accomplish much that is worth while, it should have been continued long enough to have investigated more actual tenants and have followed up some of the suggestions made by those present who qualified as experts upon rural social and economic conditions and related subjects.

This commission probably accomplished as much as any other could have done in the same length of time, considering the fact that no member of that body had any first-hand knowledge of the tenant problem. Wide publicity has been given to the testimony taken, many serious minded persons are giving time and thought to the problem involved and at an early date some plan will doubtless be devised for meeting at least a part of the difficulties which the average farm tenant has to contend with in trying to support his wife and children in decency and comfort at the same time that he buys a home for them.

NEW DISEASES OF THE WAR.

Man conquers Nature at one point, only to find her attacking from a new angle the next instant, observes the New Orleans States.

That's what's happening just now in the war zone.

Prophets were sure that fewer soldiers would die in this war than in any previous struggle since time began. Modern rifle bullets would disable without killing. Typhoid had been forestalled by the inoculation of every fighting man. Gangrene had been put out of business by modern antiseptic methods. Typhus, the filth disease, was to be kept down by keeping the soldiers clean.

Everyone of Kitchener's soldiers gets a chance for a bath and a complete new uniform from the skin out at least once a month. They'd be fighting naked, like Klipping's "Soldiers Three" at the taking of Lungtun-pen, were it not for this provision, so quickly do uniforms go to pieces in the trenches. And a monthly bath is a never-before-heard-of luxury in war.

Medical observers send reports, like passages from Dante, describing the tortures of the damned, carloads of shrieking men, with their backbones arched forward like bows in the rigors of lockjaw. Hospitals full of soldiers bloated like balloons, in awful agony. Horrors the prophets never dreamed of, these. Yet their cause is perfectly clear.

They are Nature's punishment for the crime of fighting over plowed ground.

The soil upon which men have lived and in which they have delved for centuries is where the tetanus bacillus that causes lockjaw lives and flourishes. It isn't even safe to walk barefoot over country like that. Every bullet that carries with it into a soldier's body a bit of his uniform stained with this rich soil carries potential death in its most horrible form, no matter how slight the actual wound. And the gas germs, too, come out of the soil—the soil of the most fertile, intensely cultivated farm lands in the world, the fields of France and Belgium. The same nitro-gathering bacteria that gave these fair acres their richness now bloat men into the size of two men.

Science may, and doubtless will, conquer these two new horrors of war. Dr. Meltzer of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research has invented an apparatus that makes the administration of anti-tetanus serum easier and safer, and they are rushing these machines over to the battle grounds as fast as the American manufacturers can make them.

But who will find a slayer of the gas germ, which makes a man bigger than the bed he lies on?

With half of the Texas peach, pear and plum crop cut off by the freeze, the producers will be able to command a fancy price for that which remains. Another compensating feature probably lies in the fact that you and I will be unable to eat enough of the fruit to make ourselves sick this year.

It is with regret that we note the suspension of publication by the Houston Telegram. Business conditions made it impossible for the paper to operate without a large loss.

Now we know that prosperity is on the way. The Katy railroad has ordered $2,000,000 worth of new rolling stock.

GOV. FERGUSON SIGNS THE PURCHASING BILL

MEASURE CENTRALIZES BUYING OF SUPPLIES FOR STATE INSTITUTIONS.

Blanco School Bill Voted by Request of Framer—Ferguson to Leave Austin Today.

Austin, Tex., March 23.—The bill centralizing the powers of purchasing supplies for all state eleemosynary and educational institutions in the state purchasing agent was signed by Governor Ferguson today. The Beaumont court of civil appeals bill was also approved by the governor, but no appointment of judges announced. The Blanco independent school district bill was vetoed. This bill was drawn by Representative Bairschwaile and had passed both houses but the author of the measure asked Governor Ferguson to veto it, which was done, although the vetoed bill has not yet been filed with the secretary of state.

To spend the remainder of the week in Bosque county Governor Ferguson will leave Austin at noon tomorrow. A large number of bills of minor importance, creating independent school districts and local road laws will be filed before leaving.

Representatives of the Farmers' Union have called on the governor in regard to bills passed at the present session effecting warehouses and holding of stocks by members of the Farmers' Union. They are also asking the signature of the governor to the bill appropriating money for the Panama-Pacific exposition exhibit from Texas.

State Depository Board Names Banks

Austin, Tex., March 23.—The state depository board today made awards to banks in ten of the congressional districts to act as state depositories for the next two years, and held up the bids of banks in the other congressional districts pending further consideration. Awards were made as follows:

First district, City National bank, Clarksville.
Second district, Lufkin National bank, Lufkin.
Third district, Greenville National bank, Greenville.
Fourth district, First National bank, Galveston.
Fifth district, First National bank, Navasota.
Sixth district, Bartlett State bank, Bartlett.
Seventh district, Home National bank, Cleburne.
Eighth district, First National bank, Wichita Falls.
Ninth district, Commercial National bank, Brady.

Fifteenth district, State Bank and Trust company, Brownsville.

The rates offered this year greatly exceeded those two years ago. The highest this year was 7.27 per cent and the lowest 4.10 per cent, making the average rate for the ten banks at 5.36 per cent. The highest rate two years ago was 5 per cent and the average for sixteen banks 3.30 per cent.

STATE NEWS

Sleep Police in Jail.

Dallas, March 23.—A plan is on foot to have the commissioners' court of Dallas county make a special sleeping room in the new county jail. It is planned to have this room fitted up for police officers who have to attend the criminal courts each day.

This morning nine police officers, who worked all of last night, were forced to stay up and answer summons in the various courts. They have to work again tonight. Some of them must walk residence beats. All work twelve hours. One officer said he had attended court for five straight days, and still had to work twelve hours each night.

Banks Close in Honor of McClevey.

Temple, Tex., March 23.—As a tribute to the memory of H. M. McClevey, whose death occurred yesterday, all the banks of the city closed their doors during the funeral hour today. Deceased was a charter director of the First National bank and served continuously that capacity for thirty-four years. Of late years he was also a vice president of that institution. In addition, Mr. McClevey was president of the McClevey Loan and Investment company of this city with large real estate holdings under development in Texas and New Mexico.

Storm at Gustine.

Gustine, Tex., March 23.—This vicinity witnessed one of the worst and storms of the season today. The wind blew very hard all day, accompanied with a heavy fog of dust. Some little damage was reported but nothing serious yet.

The fruit growers fear that the cold weather has damaged the fruit to a great extent, however it is hoped that there will be at least half a crop left without damage, although it is impossible to determine the exact loss at the present.

C. E. to Meet at Dallas.

Dallas, March 23.—Delegates from Kauffman, Ellis, Hunt, Dallas, Rockwall and Van Zandt counties will attend the first session of the Christian Endeavor district convention here Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Honoring Daniel A. Poling, the leader of the first section of the Flying Squadron of America, a dinner will be served at 6 o'clock Friday night.

Dr. Ira Landreth, who is also a member of the squadron, will speak at the convention Saturday afternoon at 5:45 o'clock.

Woodmen at Belton.

Belton, Tex., March 23.—Members of Belton lodge Modern Woodmen of the World held a jubilation meeting tonight which was largely attended by members of the order. The occasion was the presentation to the local lodge of the state banner awarded for the largest increase in membership of any camp in the jurisdiction. The prize was formerly held by Greenville. State Deputy A. J. Rooks of Dallas was present to officially bestow the trophy. A banquet was held after the business session.

Revival at Salado.

Belton, Tex., March 23.—Under the leadership of Rev. C. F. Lindsey of Mart the congregation of the Methodist church at Salado, twelve miles south of here, is holding a protracted revival meeting to continue indefinitely. Rev. E. R. Patterson, pastor of the church, is assisting with the meeting which is attracting large congregations at each of the three services held daily.

For Rheumatism, Elmer & Amend's
N. Y. 2851 gives relief. Why suffer when this relieves you? Reliable druggists carry it.

Business Economy--
Use Long Distance

There are innumerable uses for "Long Distance."

For instance:
A merchant's bill of goods is not as ordered. The wholesaler or jobber who made the delivery would appreciate immediate notice that correction may be quickly made, satisfactory business relations maintained and delay—which means loss—avoided.

At the same time the call will save business loss to the merchant by bringing his stock up to what his custom demands and do it in the earliest possible time.

Have you thought of the possibilities of your Long Distance Telephone?

The Southwestern Telegraph &
Telephone Company

Temple Flour Mill
to Resume Operation

Temple, Tex., March 23.—A contract has been signed by a group of town parties for the purchase of the Werkheiser Polk flour mill here, which has stood idle for several years. The present owners reside in Louisiana and the new purchasers are not yet ready to make their plans public.

The plant is to be thoroughly overhauled and rehabilitated. It consists of a three-story brick building with site, fully equipped with machinery and several large steel grain storage tanks in addition. The intention is to convert it into one of the largest milling establishments in central Texas.

Cisco High Wins Loving Cup.

Cisco, March 23.—The county meet for the schools that entered the state interscholastic league contest was held in Cisco Friday and Saturday, on the public school athletic field. There were fourteen schools in the county entering the contest, and a loving cup was given the school that won the highest number of points. Cisco High school won with 171 points to its credit, while its nearest competitor received only 71 points. Cisco high school won in the athletics, spelling, declamations, girls' basket ball, while Eastland high school won in boys' basket ball, and Gorman in the debate.

There were hundreds of visitors in Cisco during the two days' contest, and a great interest was manifested.

Mrs. J. W. Mann Dead.

Mart, Tex., March 23.—Mrs. J. W. Mann died early this morning at her home in south Mart. She is survived by her husband and seven children.

Services will be held tomorrow morning in the Presbyterian church and interment in the Mart cemetery.

Cisco Papers Consolidated.

The two papers at Cisco, the Round-Up, established thirty-four years ago, and the Apert, established twenty-two years ago, have been consolidated, the latter having been discontinued. C. W. Bearden and F. E. Shepard, experienced men, have bought both plants.

Ford Auto Man Lectures.

Dallas, March 23.—N. A. Hawkins of Detroit, general sales manager of the Ford automobile company, is in Dallas. He will spend several days at the Dallas assembling plant. Yesterday he lectured to the employees.

Baptism at Mart.

Mart, Tex., March 23.—Twenty-one people were baptized at the Baptist church last night. They were converted and joined the church during the recent revival conducted by Rev. J. M. Dawson of Waco.

Hillsboro Banks

Are Consolidated

Hillsboro, Tex., March 23.—Two state banks and a private bank were consolidated here today when the Hill County State bank and the Sturgis bank moved into the First State bank building, the merged institutions assuming the name of the First State bank, with a capital of $150,000 and surplus of $15,000.

The transferring of the funds into the vaults of the First State bank was supervised by State Bank Examiner R. K. Roberts.

The officers of the new institution are W. R. Masterson, president; Thos. Ivy, vice president, and chairman of the board of directors; H. H. Simmons, vice president; T. J. Files, cashier; R. F. Siddons and J. J. Jordan, assistant cashiers.

Manager for Adolphus Named.

Dallas, March 23.—Announcement was made this morning that R. E. Ellis of Kansas City will become the manager of the Adolphus hotel, vice Alvah Wilson, resigned. In a letter to department heads of the hotel, J. S. Kendall, vice president of the Dallas hotel company, expressed the wish that the new manager shall enjoy the same loyal support as that which was given Mr. Wilson.

KEEP LIVER AND BOWELS REGULAR WITH CASCARETS

NO MORE HEADACHE, BAD COLDS, SOUR STOMACH AND CONSTIPATION.

Get a 10-cent box now.

No odds how bad your liver, stomach or bowels; how much your head aches, how miserable and uncomfortable you are from constipation, indigestion, biliousness and sluggish bowels—you always get the desired results with Cascarets.

Don't let your stomach, liver and bowels make you miserable. Take Cascarets tonight; put an end to the headache, biliousness, dizziness, nervousness, sick, sour, gassy stomach, backache and all other ailments. Cleanse your inside organs of all the bile, gases and constipated matter which is producing the misery.

A 10-cent box means health, happiness and a clear head for months. No more days of gloom and distress if you will take a Cascaret now and then. All druggists sell Cascarets. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a gentle cleansing, too.

Falls County Good Roads Bonds Lose

Marlin, Tex., March 23.—Incomplete returns late tonight show that the $500,000 bond issue for good roads in precinct No. 1, Falls county, lost heavily. A two-thirds vote was necessary to carry. Four boxes not heard from out of nine, are Matina, Eureka, Powers and Grussendorf. In the five boxes heard from the vote was 437 for and 334 against.

In the four unreported boxes there is a probable total vote of 175. It is estimated that the vote will be in these boxes 169 against and 75 for. In the two Marlin boxes the vote was 334 for and 161 against.

Temple Man Seriously Ill.

Temple, Tex., March 23.—R. T. (Dick) Fleming, one of the best known citizens of Temple and a veteran engineer in the employ of the Santa Fe railway out of this city, is dangerously ill at his residence in this city following the visitation of an attack of pneumonia, experienced on Sunday last. Very little hope for his recovery was held out today.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of J. C. Hendrix

The Hotel Waco
Cafe

Something better to eat every day. Service that is bound to please. Eat your lunch with us today.

A. D. ADAMS, Proprietor.

The First National Bank OF WACO, TEXAS.

CAPITAL, SURPLUS
AND PROFITS $800,000.00

The Largest Bank in Central Texas

Not Too Large to Give CAREFUL ATTENTION to SMALL ACCOUNTS.

Your Grandmother's Remedy for Purifying the Blood

And Renovating the System in the Springtime

Ask for Sulphur Tablets.

What was grandmother's unexcelled remedy? Haven't you heard of it? Yes, you have. It was sulphur, cream of tartar and molasses. The main trouble with it was its nauseous taste.

A modern method puts the cream of tartar and sulphur into sugar-coated tablets and mixes them with herbs, roots, etc., making a wonderful tonic, blood purifier and system cleanser.

Just try Sulphur Tablets (not sulphur tablets), but Sulphur—remember the name—and get the tablets in sealed tubes at 50c per tube. Grown-up people and children who don't feel well who are constipated or sluggish or who have pimples, boils, carbuncles, ulcers and the like, can soon rid the system of these impurities by taking this good old-fashioned remedy in modern form. Their action satisfies or money is refunded by the Prescription Products Company, Dayton, Ohio. A free trial sent to any address. Buy of any well-stocked druggist.

GIRLS! CLEAN AND BEAUTIFY HAIR

NO DANDRUFF—25 CENT DANDERINE

STOP WASHING HAIR! TRY THIS! MAKES HAIR GLOSSY, SOFT AND ABUNDANT.

Surely try a "Danderine Hair Cleanser" if you wish to immediately double the beauty of your hair. Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one small strand at a time, this will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or any excessive oil—in a few minutes you will be amazed. Your hair will be wavy, fluffy and abundant and possess an incomparable softness, lustre and luxuriance.

Besides beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; invigorates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful. You can surely have pretty, soft, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.

Gives Graphic Account of Conditions in Przemysl

London, March 23.—A Russian correspondent which set out from Lemberg for Przemysl on receipt of the news that the fortress had surrendered, sends a graphic account of the conditions prevailing there, which has been transmitted from Petrograd to Reuters' Telegram company. On the way the correspondent passed Schijewine, where the Austrians made their last desperate sortie three days before the town was still littered with bodies which were being removed by ambulances. Further on was seen a pillar of smoke rising from all that remained of the strongest of the outlying forts.

On the other side of the road were trenches and barbed wire entanglements with a dozen field guns protruding. Austrian officers who retained their swords and their men were passing as prisoners to the rear.

From Perkopag, a suburb of Przemysl, a close view was obtained of the center of the town. All the bridges had been destroyed by the Austrians but the Russians had already constructed a pontoon bridge by which Austrian troops and the inhabitants were leaving the town. The Cossacks were waiting to go in. All around the fortress burning ruins smoked like a circle of volcanoes while continuous explosions were heard as the Austrians blew up ammunition stores. Austrian soldiers relate that the commander of Przemysl in his official orders thanked the people of the town the evening before the surrender for their loyal attitude and warned them of the coming capitulation. At 5 o'clock the next morning loud explosions were heard from every part of the fortress, when the Austrians were blowing up the works preparatory to surrender. Then part of the Russian forces were sent into the town. The Russian inner sections were in the hands of the Russians. In the meantime the Austrian representatives came out to announce the capitulation of the garrison and fortress. The town of Przemysl itself is intact, the outskirts alone suffered. The large civilian population, chiefly Jews, remained in the town.

More Golden-Rod, more butter and better butter. For sale by all dealers. Cornforth Grain Co., distributors.—Adv.

HOW TO PREVENT ACID STOMACHS

AND FOOD FERMENTATION.

By a Stomach Specialist.

As a specialist who has spent many years in the study and treatment of stomach troubles, I have been forced to the conclusion that most people who complain of stomach trouble possess stomachs that are absolutely healthy and normal. The real trouble, that which causes all the pain and difficulty, is excessive acid in the stomach, aggravated by food fermentation. Hyperacidity irritates the delicate lining of the stomach, and food fermentation causes wind which distends the stomach abnormally, causing that full, bloated feeling. Thus both acid and fermentation interfere with and retard the process of digestion. The stomach is usually healthy and normal, but irritated almost past endurance by these foreign elements—acid and wind. In all such cases—and they comprise over 90 per cent of all stomach difficulties—the first and only step necessary is to neutralize the acid and stop the fermentation by taking a little warm or cold water immediately after eating, from one to two teaspoonfuls of bisulphate of magnesia, which is doubtless the best and only really effective antacid and food corrective known. The acid will be neutralized and the fermentation stopped almost instantly, and your stomach will be at once proceeded to digest the food in a healthy, normal manner. Be sure to ask your druggist for the bisulphate of magnesia, as I have found other forms utterly lacking in its peculiarly valuable properties.—F. J. G.

YOUR IDLE MONEY

Should be earning you interest in our SAVINGS DEPARTMENT

Interest Paid Semi-annually

Central Texas Exchange National Bank

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $600,000.00

GOLDSTEIN MIGEL PART IS SUCCESS

"STORE FAMILY" CELEBRATES THE 29TH BIRTHDAY OF BIG INSTITUTION.

I. A. GOLDSTEIN, TOASTMASTER

Employees and Members of Firm Compliment Each Other and Tell of Happy Days.

Twenty-nine years ago the Goldstein-Migel company started in business in Waco, the name then being Goldstein & Migel. The "store family" celebrated the birthday last night with a dinner and program on the second floor of the big department store. Employees did most of the talking and the spirit of loyalty they manifested showed just why the company has succeeded.

More than 200 persons sat down to the feast. There were members of the firm, their families, employees and a few invited friends. Everybody wore his or her everyday clothes. Big business was forgotten. Baseball, picture shows, parties, dresses, gardens, weather, in fact, everything but selling goods was talked around the long tables.

I. A. Goldstein, president of the company, acted as toastmaster. He spoke briefly on the early days, when the force consisted of himself, Louey Migel, a lady clerk who was cashier, wrapper and saleswoman, and one man. The first electric lights in Waco came after the firm started in business. The building occupied then was a small affair, nothing like the handsome building now occupied, which Mr. Goldstein declared was not fancy but built for one purpose, that of service. He expressed a pride in the reputation the firm had established and said that the store had been a success in always having the best and noblest lot of clerks that could be secured anywhere.

Miss Debbie Woods spoke on "The Joy of Work." She said it was a pleasure to work for such bosses who always looked after the comfort of their employees. She said that assisting people to get what they wanted was a real pleasure, and in closing, wished the firm continued prosperity and "lots of business."

"The Women, God Bless Them," was the subject assigned to R. E. Parker and he paid a glowing tribute to the fair sex.

Mr. Goldstein had spoken of the saleslady who was with the store when it opened. She was present last night, her name now being Mrs. H. Little, and she responded to the toast, "Good Old Times." She said she never could talk much, but gave some vivid accounts of the times when Mr. Goldstein used to look wistfully up and down the street, hoping that a customer would come in sight.

In the meantime the Austrian representatives came out to announce the capitulation of the garrison and fortress. The town of Przemysl itself is intact, the outskirts alone suffered. The large civilian population, chiefly Jews, remained in the town.

Co-operation, honesty, thinking, doing work assigned and giving encouragement when deserved were advanced by W. L. Bacon for secrets of "Managing Made Easy." Mr. Bacon said he had been with the company for twenty years and was proud of that fact and of the big store in which he is still employed.

I. A. Goldstein said that G. M. girls made good wives and that their four hundred women had married happily out of the store, marrying all sorts of men.

M. S. Brooks spoke on "The Secret of Youth," Harry Hoffman on "All Pure Leather," J. A. Dannenbaum on "Smiles" and Miss Annie Mae Bell on "Why I Came Back." Each drew a round of applause.

Mrs. A. H. Fox told "What I Know About Farming," detailing some said tales, which were most interesting. J. W. Carlin spoke on "Advertising Did It All." His talk was a clever take-off on those which had been heard at the parties of the party pelted him with everything they could reach at one time. He closed in a serious vein, declaring the Goldstein-Migel clerks "the best bunch of store folks in Texas," complimenting the firm, and saying that it was not advertising that did things, but what was back of it.

L. Migel, Sol Hirschberg and L. H. Goldstein, members of the firm, each spoke briefly, expressing pride in their store family, satisfaction with the twenty-nine years' progress and ultimate faith in the future of the store and Waco.

At the conclusion of the program, the "younger" members of the family, some of whom were gray-haired, enjoyed an informal dance for a couple of hours on a portion of the floor that had been cleared away for that purpose. The birthday party was a success, both from the standpoint of members of the family and the visitors.

Phoenix, Ariz., March 23.—Governor Hunt vetoed today a bill providing for the establishment of the pari-mutuel system of betting on horse races in Arizona.

No Bismarck Celebration at London. London, March 23.—Emperor William has decided to cancel the celebration planned for April 1 to commemorate the centenary of Bismarck's birth, on the ground that present conditions make such a celebration undesirable.

A Berlin dispatch, the correspondent adds, asserts that Emperor William and the members of the German government will place wreaths on Bismarck's monument in the Tiergarten, Berlin, but that there will be no speeches, speeches or singing.

Mrs. M. O'Connell Dies. Mrs. M. O'Connell, 60 years old, died at 9:45 last night at the family residence, 1019 West avenue. She suffered an attack of paralysis about a week ago. Besides her husband, she is survived by seven sons, six daughters, John, Will, Robert, Walter and Ed O'Connell of Waco, Tom O'Connell of Corsicana, George O'Connell of Port Smith, Ark.; Mrs. J. M. Harper of Waco and Mrs. R. R. Thompson of Frost. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

Fairy Dreams of Appetite

One Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet Will Enable One to Digest Any Meal, Any Time.

Make up your mind to go to your next meal with the desire to eat what you will and do it.

"Every Meal Smiles at Me Now Since I've Been Taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets."

After that meal take a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet and fear no evil effects from the food you have eaten for it will be digested easily, quickly.

Then gradually fairy dreams of appetite will come back to you and in a short time the old romping appetite will return to you.

All druggists carry and recommend Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, 50c a box. Trial free by sending coupon below.

Free Trial Coupon

F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich. Send me at once by return mail, a free trial package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Name Street City State

Bubs. Mosley to Have Tall Pitcher and a Mutiny at Ft. Smith

From reports Bubs Mosley, coach at Baylor, is to have a mutiny on his hands at Fort Smith when he arrives there to manage the club as he has contracted to do. The following Associated Press report was received last night:

Senator Webb Will Speak Here With Flying Squadron

United States Senator Webb of Tennessee will speak in Waco with the Flying Squadron of prohibition workers, in place of Dr. Charles M. Sheldon of Topeka, Kan., minister, author and lecturer, who is taking a leave of absence for four days, according to word received here last night. Senator Webb is said to be one of the most eloquent speakers in the south.

The Flying Squadron comes here on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Senator Webb and Daniel A. Poling, national Christian Endeavor worker, will be the principal speakers on the opening day.

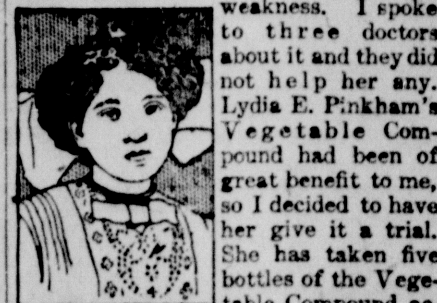

Fort Smith, Ark., March 23.—All the catchers threatened to strike when Bob Wray, seven feet two inches tall, reported at the training camp of the Fort Smith club of the Western Association today and it was announced that he is to be tried out as a pitcher.

If he makes good, it is said he will be the largest pitcher in organized baseball. Wray is a clerk at a hardware store at Lenape, Ok., and this is his first effort at league baseball.

MOTHER OF SCHOOL GIRL

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Daughter's Health.

Plover, Iowa.—"From a small child my 13 year old daughter had female weakness. I spoke to three doctors about it and they did not help her any. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had been of great benefit to me, so I decided to have her give it a trial. She has taken five bottles of the Vegetable Compound according to directions on the bottle and she is cured of this trouble. She was all run down when she started taking the Compound and her periods did not come right. She was so poorly and weak that I often had to help her dress herself, but now she is regular and is growing strong and healthy."—Mrs. MARTIN HELVIG, Plover, Iowa.

Hundreds of such letters expressing gratitude for the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished are constantly being received, proving the reliability of this grand old remedy.

If you are ill do not drag along and continue to suffer day in and day out but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a woman's remedy for woman's ills.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Y. M. B. L. RESEATS ROTARY MATCH

DIRECTORS DECLARE TREATMENT OF REPRESENTATIVE INEXCUSABLE.

WILL ADDRESS COMMISSIONERS

Special Meeting Thursday Afternoon to Consider Resolutions—Old Quarters Retained.

A resolution indorsing every act and word of the delegation appointed by the directors to go before the city commission in the hearing on the proposed fire ordinance Monday morning was passed by the directors of the Young Men's Business League last night. The motion also included the appointment of a committee composed of President J. J. Hutchison, L. Friedlander and E. P. Carroll to report to a special meeting of the directors, called for tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, and present to the directors a resolution embodying the indorsement of everything that was said and done by the Y. M. B. L. delegation before the city commission Monday, expressing the confidence of the directors in W. W. Naman, and demanding of the city commission that it be accorded to Y. M. B. L. delegations that may appear before that body in the future.

This action of the directorate came at the close of an executive session, moved by Mr. Friedlander. Before the vote was taken on the motion above, the open session was resumed.

The motion to go into executive session was made by Mr. Friedlander at a busy meeting of the city commission Monday was called for. Mr. Naman after telling of the happenings expressed regret that the Y. M. B. L. had been connected with the affair, and regret if any connection of his personally had brought reproach to the organization. W. V. Crawford, one of the delegation that appeared before the city commission, also spoke, resenting the treatment accorded to Mr. Naman and to the delegation, and through them to the Y. M. B. L.

Cotton Palace Fund.

The Y. M. B. L. will undertake to raise the guarantee asked by the Cotton Palace directors at once, as the result of a motion made by W. V. Crawford which was passed by the directors after thorough discussion of the report of the committee appointed to confer with a like committee from the Cotton Palace directorate.

Through the action of the directors the merchants and business men of the city must be depended upon to furnish the lead and the larger part of the guarantee. A campaign of education through the newspapers is being planned to inform the people of the peculiar financial status of the exposition and the merits of the guarantee plan over the plan to sell stock directly. The Cotton Palace is not in debt, and it was stated that only in extremely adverse circumstances would the guarantors be called upon for any part of the money. The institution will be forced to go into debt at least $25,000 before the gates are opened this year. It was stated that the directors of the Cotton Palace would feel justified in carrying that amount if it were not for the possibility of jeopardizing the show in future years. For instance, if the exposition should spend this $25,000 this year and sixteen days of rain should fall on the show dates, next year the Cotton Palace would face a debt of more than $25,000 before preparations were made for the 1916 exposition.

The Cotton Palace has made profits every year except last, when conditions were so extraordinary that they will hardly be repeated again. It was the opinion of the business men present last night that the risk of the guarantors was very small. The more the total amount raised in guarantees the less will be the per cent liability of each guarantor.

Katy Shop Question.

Waco is no longer a division point on the M. & T. railroad, in spite of the fact that the shops of the road are located here and the Y. M. B. L. has a contract with the road designating this point as a freight division, according to information brought to the directors last night by William Reese, Mr. Reese that no train crews received their lay-offs in this city, but in Dallas and Fort Worth, and that even the machinists in the city shops at Belmond were directed from Denison and back again. He said that this state of affairs had been brewing for twelve months, and that now many railroad men who had bought property here when the shops were established, are compelled to maintain their families here and themselves in other cities.

The matter will be taken up by the Y. M. B. L. with General Manager Webb of the road. It was referred to a special committee composed of President Hutchison, L. Friedlander and W. H. Hoffman.

Old Quarters Retained.

The Young Men's Business League will remain in its present quarters for the next three years. The owner of the present quarters will make extensive improvements and changes in the club rooms, raising the rent from $50 to $55 per month. This was decided at the meeting of the directors last night. The lease committee, which has had the matter of securing quarters for the league, made its report, which was accepted. The committee was instructed to get the proposed improvements into the shape of a contract which will be presented to the next meeting of the directors for ratification. Several other propositions were considered, but the lower rent of the present quarters and the fact that a technical lease exists by which the league is morally bound until August 31, 1917, prevailed upon the board to accept the proposal of the present landlord. The new lease will be made for an added year over the old, which will carry the time of expiration to September 1, 1918.

After President's Cup.

The president's cup, given by President W. E. Davidson of the Texas League to the city having the largest attendance at the opening game of the 1915 baseball season will remain in Waco if the Y. M. B. L. can turn the trick. President Hutchison of the Y. M. B. L. will appoint a committee of five to conduct one of the Y. M. B. L.'s campaigns to break the record for attendance in the Texas League. Business hopes of the city will be asked to close their doors on the afternoon of the opening day, which is April 8, and everyone go to the ball game. Waco has the name of being the best baseball town for its size in the world, and is always ahead on opening day attendance. President Davidson is a Waco man, and the Y. M. B. L. feels that it owes a duty to the city to win the cup in the first year that it is offered.

Natural Gas Celebration.

The advent of natural gas into Waco will be observed with appropriate ceremonies through the co-operation of the Young Men's Business League and the Texas Power and Light company. The date set by the company to turn the natural gas into the mains in the city is March 31. A committee was appointed by the directors of the Y. M. B. L. last night to arrange in conjunction with

Famous "Economy Center" Special

Men's 50c Four-in-Hand Ties at . . . 29c Each

Here is another worth while Special in our "Economy Center" that will appeal to the men. Flowing end Four-in-Hand Ties, in a fine assortment of patterns. This is another pick-up purchase of Neckwear. Ties that were produced to sell for 50c. On sale in the "Economy Center" beginning this morning at.

Each 29c

Famous

representatives of the Texas Power and Light company, a suitable celebration of the event. The committee was composed of E. P. Carroll, W. V. Crawford and B. C. Nettles.

Entertainment of the convention of the Texas Press Women was given to the hands of the entertainment committee, of which W. J. Geisler is president. Details of the entertainment will be worked out later.

Union Oil Options Expire.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 23.—Restrictions placed upon financial operations by the British government will prevent control of the Union Oil company of California from passing into the hands of an English syndicate on April 1, at which time options held by London financiers expire, according to statements here today.

Negotiations probably will be concluded, it was stated, at the annual meeting of the company on April 15, whereby the British syndicate represented by Andrew Wier of Liverpool, will be given a block of stock equal to the amount of the loan which has actually been paid into the treasury of the Union Oil company. This amount was said to be approximately $2,400,000.

Several London financiers headed by Earl Grey, composed the syndicate, which more than a year ago began negotiations for the purchase of the oil company stock.

Suit Against Miners.

Zanesville, Ohio, March 23.—Suit for $25,000 damages was filed in the common pleas court here today by the Elk Coal company of Columbus, Ohio, against 145 coal miners who were employees of the company when they went on a strike last Thursday. Because of the strike, the company states, it has been unable to fill contracts and as a result has suffered financial loss.

Counsel for the company expect that the question of the right of a labor union to abrogate a wage contract by ordering a strike when the contract provides for the submission of all disputes to arbitration will be raised in the case.

Petition to Commute.

Austin, Tex., March 23.—Petition for commutation of the death sentence to life imprisonment in the penitentiary has been filed with the board of pardons in behalf of Sam Harris, a negro under sentence to be hanged at Beaumont on March 30. On January 29, a sixty days' respite was given to Harris by the governor. The board of pardons is now at work on the case and expects to make a report to the governor in a few days. Harris was convicted of the killing of a white man with an axe.

The board is also considering the application of Carl Oliver, a negro, under sentence to be hanged on April 16, at Sherman, for the murder of Robert Stanley, a white man at Franklin, Robertson county. Protests have been received by the board against granting a commutation.

Well, I'll take your word for it. Don't fool with it around here!

That's what any sane individual would say to a man with a loaded gun. Yet there are thousands tampering with a beverage loaded with a poisonous drug which gets in its work with sure precision.

That beverage is Coffee—Caffeine is a drug.

Headache, biliousness, nervousness, sleeplessness—these are some of the signs that so often accompany coffee's operations.

Knowing that coffee is loaded, why not quit it and use

INSTANT POSTUM

—a pure food-drink, made from hard northern wheat with a bit of wholesome molasses. Caffeine-free—drug-free—delicious—nourishing—economical.

Postum comes in two forms: Postum Cereal—has to be well boiled; 15c and 25c packages. Instant Postum—made in the cup with hot water; 30c and 50c tins. Both forms are equally delightful; cost per cup about the same.

No dangers—no fears with POSTUM. Old and young drink it with pleasure and benefit.

"There's a Reason"

Sold by Grocers everywhere.

San Diego

San Francisco

Panama Expositions

$52.50

(Round Trip)

Go one way, return another—direct routes; stopovers.

$76.25

(Round Trip)

Go via San Diego, Los Angeles, San Francisco—Return via Portland, Seattle, Denver.

The California Special

(From Temple Daily 3:40 P. M.)

The New Short Line and Quick Time, With FRED HARVEY Serving the Meals.

For further information, write or phone—Old 259; New 314.

SANTA FE CITY TICKET OFFICE

406 Franklin St., Peerless Bldg.

SAFETY AND SERVICE

THE HOME INTERURBAN

Waco, Hillsboro, Waxahachie, Dallas and intermediate points.

FREQUENT BAGGAGE CARS—150 lbs. baggage allowed on each ticket. Direct interurban connections at Dallas for McKinney, Sherman, Denison, Ennis, Corsicana, Fort Worth, Cleburne and intermediate points. T. H. WILLIAMS, Div. Pass. Agent, both phones 2988. Station Fourth and Washington Sts., Waco.

NAVS AND BAYLOR TO PLAY ON THURSDAY

GAME WILL BE CALLED AT 3:30. TEMPLE COMES HERE FOR SUNDAY.

Bunch Looking Good—No Blue Slips Given Out—Hardy Seems Pleased With Prospects.

Hardy's Skippers and Baylor's nine will tangle at Katy park for the second time this season tomorrow afternoon at 3:30. The Baylor Bears show somewhat of a scare into the professional camp last week by a late rally and came near tying up a score that had gone one-sided to the last inning. On next Sunday Waco will play Temple here and on the following Sunday will go to Temple for a game.

The Navigators had two practices yesterday, a six inning contest being staged in the afternoon between the regulars and the reserves. The score was with Ogle in camp there is but one man to report, that being Jack Ashton. He is working out with his Southwestern University proteges and will report in condition. From the showing made by his youngsters, Ashton is somewhat of a coach. State University barely won able to beat them out in eleven innings at Austin.

Manager Hardy never prophesies, but takes no chances in making good. The skipper is more than pleased at the look of the bunch this early in the season. This is considerably more than Captain Leidy at San Antonio evidently can say, as he has called Jawn McGraw to his rescue and has a verbal promise from the Napoleon of baseball to lend his efforts to the Broncho manager to get some good youngsters. This will be considerable help, too, as McGraw, with his great scoring eye, can put Cap. in touch with many good players.

KANSAS CITY RETAINS FRANCHISE.

Kansas City, March 23.—By an agreement between the officials of the Federal League and the directors of the Kansas City Federal League club the Kansas City organization retains its franchise and a team in the league. The agreement was announced tonight at a jubilee smoker held to celebrate the retention of the team.

INDIANS BEAT AMATEURS.

Palestine, Tex., March 23.—At Palestine today the Cleveland amateur team by a score of 15 to 3. Neither team scored until the fifth when the amateurs blew up.

BROWNS BEAT BUFFS.

Houston, Tex., March 23.—The St. Louis American regulars defeated Houston (Texas league) today 10 to 1. The score—R. H. E. Houston 10 15 1. Smith, Napier and Baker; Loudermilk and Severid.

BASE BALL GOODS

W. A. HOLT CO. SPORTING GOODS

PANAMAS

That old hat feels good on your head. We will make it look like new for a small cost, and relieve you of the trouble of trying to find another shape that pleases you. Our fifteen years' experience makes it possible for us to design and rebuild your old hat in a way that will please you.

The Standard Hat Works

125 North Fifth St.

HAVANA BOUT TO BE A GEHEE BATTLE

CHAMPIONSHIP HAS CHANCE TO CHANGE HANDS FOR FIRST TIME SINCE NEGRO WON.

WILLARD MUCH BIGGER MAN

Eleven Years Younger, Thirty-Five Pounds Heavier, Taller and Has Longer Reach.

Last week marked the eighteenth anniversary of the greatest upset in the world of pugilism during two decades. Just eighteen years ago on St. Patrick's day at Carson City, Nevada, Robert Fitzsimmons, a scrawny middleweight, wrestled the heavyweight championship of the world from James J. Corbett, and upset every matter of form that ever had surrounded the prize ring.

Since that time the world's title has changed hands four times, the battles taking place all the way from Reno, Nevada, to Australia. Strange to say, three of the greatest heavyweight battles of the age have taken place in the state of Nevada, which is more sparsely settled than any other state in the United States.

Now, the seventh great battle within twenty years is taking place in Havana, Cuba, on Sunday, April 4, a city heretofore almost unknown as a pugilistic center.

Fitzsimmons whipped Corbett on March 17, 1897, at Carson City, and the famed solar plexus blow saw his first introduction to the fighting public. For two years Fitz was the world's champion in two classes, and regarded as the greatest fighting machine of all time. Then came the cumbersome Jeffries, Jeff weighed 215 pounds; Fitz weighed 158.

But—Jeff was the harder they fall, declared Fitz. "Yes, if they fall," was Martin Julian's answer. Fitz was knocked out in eleven rounds. This at Coney Island on June 9, 1899.

Holds Title Six Years. For six years Jeff held the title and was regarded as the one invincible fighter. Finally, like Alexander of ancient fame, he had no more worlds to conquer. He retired, and Max Baer, of Kentucky, and Jack Root of Chicago fought at Reno for the title. Jeff, adding dignity to the occasion by acting as referee, and handing the title to the man who won.

Hart knocked out Root in the twelfth round and for less than a year held the title. Then Tommy Burns, a little Canadian, perhaps the greatest all round athlete that ever invaded pugilistic circles, defeated Hart in the tenth round at Los Angeles, and the title again changed hands. It was the first time in the history of the world that a Canadian held the heavyweight championship of the world.

All the time Jack Johnson had been chasing various champions from Jeffries to Burns, for a chance at the world's title. All had been looking out of the window when Lil Arthur, who asked for a last match with Johnson, cornered Burns in Australia and Hugh McIntosh offered a purse of $5,000 for the battle. Burns insisted on drawing, and Johnson finally accepted, taking $5,000 for his own end.

Police Stop Battle. The police stopped the battle in the fourteenth round, and Johnson was declared world's champion, the first time a negro ever had held the title, although Tom Molineaux, an American, had claimed the world's championship. In 1909 Jeffries re-entered the arena, and finally, after a match with Johnson at Reno, Nevada. The fight took place on July 4, 1909, and Jeffries was beaten in the fifteenth round, after putting up a fine exhibition. It marked the end of the career of a great fighter and gave Johnson an undisputed right to claim the world's championship.

Now, for the first time in his career, Johnson is opposed to a man younger, stronger, possessing greater reach and right and reaching power. The negro is in his thirty-ninth year. Willard is in his twenty-eighth. Willard has an advantage of five inches in height, 25 pounds in weight, nearly five inches in reach, 11 years in age, and both men use the same punch, an uppercut, as their great blow. The first time the championship has had a real chance to change hands since Johnson whipped Tommy Burns will be in Havana, March 4, when the two men meet. American boxing plunkers are doubtful regarding the result.

LOCAL COURTS.

NINETEENTH DISTRICT COURT.

Tom L. McCullough, Judge.

R. V. McClain, Clerk.

J. A. Wilson vs. Southern Traction Company, damages, on argument.

Annie Miller vs. Herman Miller, divorce, divorce and division of property granted.

C. W. Lear vs. Allena R. Lear, divorce, divorce granted.

E. F. Reagan vs. Laudie Reagan, divorce, divorce granted.

C. E. Dansey vs. E. A. Moore et al, dismissed.

FIFTY-FOURTH DISTRICT COURT.

Richard I. Munroe, Judge.

R. V. McClain, Clerk.

No orders.

SEVENTY-FOURTH DISTRICT COURT.

Erwin J. Clark, Judge.

R. V. McClain, Clerk.

No orders.

COUNTY COURT.

George N. Denton, Judge.

J. W. Baker, Clerk.

Ragsdale vs. St. Louis and Southern railway, debt; judgment for plaintiff for $1213.38.

SUITS FILED.

Seventy-fourth District Court.

A. L. Harris vs. Claude Moran and R. F. Taylor, damages.

Beulah L. Harris by next friend, vs. Claude Moran and R. F. Taylor, damages.

VALE-HARVARD BOAT RACE.

New London, Conn., March 23.—The Yale-Harvard variety eight-oared race will be rowed up stream on the Thames river between 4:30 and 5 o'clock Friday, June 25, according to an announcement today by R. V. Charlton, chairman of the committee on arrangements.

The varsity race last year was rowed up stream as it was in 1891, 1893, 1897, 1908 and 1909.

AUDITORIUM.

Fritz Kreisler's program to be rendered Friday night at the Auditorium theatre.

- (a) Concerto in C Major.....Vivaldi
- (b) Allegro mactoso.....Andante lamentoso Allegro giocoso.
- (c) Devil's Trill.....Tartini
- (d) Prelude and Gavotte.....Gluck
- (e) Chanson Louis XIII et Pavan.....Couperin
- (f) Scherzo et Rigodon.....Chopin
- (g) Variations.....Francoeur
- (h) Chanson.....Tartini
- (i) Caprice Viennois.....Kreisler
- (j) Tambourin Chinois.....Kreisler
- (k) Two Old Vienna Valises:
1. Liebes Freud.....Kreisler
2. Liebes Freud.....Kreisler

MAJESTIC.

"My Boy Jim."

Like the freshening currents of the equinoctial winds is the four-act presentation of human life showing at the Majestic under the name of "My Boy Jim." All the enveloping viciousness of life is brushed away, and the charm of the little homey things and deeds are revealed. "My Boy Jim" is a play that goes under the surface of things and reveals the eternal maxim that good must triumph over evil. It is a play that will leave a wholesome after-taste.

The Adelaide Irving company sustained its reputation as a giver of constant values in the performances yesterday. Today matinee and night are the last performances of "My Boy Jim." The play is a revelation to those who have never seen him in similar roles. Miss Irving's work as "Hetty Kingsbridge," the husky city girl who has the time of her life in the country, is exceptionally good, as are all of Miss Irving's characterizations. Other members of the company are cast to their individual advantage, and get away with their parts in fine style. A particular striking scene is the "My Boy Jim" is the dance scene in the farmyard.

Al and Lois Bridge in specialty are an established part of the Adelaide Irving company. Their work is entirely satisfactory, which is only repeating what everyone in Waco knows.

COZY.

This afternoon and tonight will see the last two performances of the "No-Name" play at the new Cozy theatre. The play is a revelation to those who have never seen it. It is a play that goes under the surface of things and reveals the eternal maxim that good must triumph over evil. It is a play that will leave a wholesome after-taste.

Twenty-five dollars is being offered as a prize to the person who can find the most appropriate name for the play—other than its right name—if known. The contest is open to all, and there are no conditions other than that the contest must be held by the Cozy theatre.

The "No-Name" play has an unusual plot and is in every other respect an unusual play. Its story concerns a bit of the life of a person who is a "No-Name" play. It is a play that goes under the surface of things and reveals the eternal maxim that good must triumph over evil. It is a play that will leave a wholesome after-taste.

The "No-Name" play has an unusual plot and is in every other respect an unusual play. Its story concerns a bit of the life of a person who is a "No-Name" play. It is a play that goes under the surface of things and reveals the eternal maxim that good must triumph over evil. It is a play that will leave a wholesome after-taste.

HIPPODROME.

"The Tangle."

Today is the last day to see "The Tangle," a made in Texas moving picture, that comes here direct, after a run of four weeks at the Hippodrome Broadway Theatre in New York.

As announced, this feature photoplay was produced in Galveston, the scenes being laid in and around the Hotel Galvez. Naomi Childers, L. Rogers Lytton, Gladys James and Darwin Karr head a company of about fifty movie stars.

Naomi Childers, who is seen as the young wife of the colonel in love with his lieutenant, is one of the real beauties of the Hippodrome. There is a beautiful girl named Miss Childers, better known as the "Grecian Girl" of the Hippodrome. Not only is her beauty a thing to wonder at, but it is enhanced by her modest demeanor and charming personality. Under the direction of Captain Lambert, of the Hippodrome company, she has risen rapidly into moving picture prominence during the last year, and is now one of the leading women of the company.

Some of the greatest artists have painted and modeled her, enraptured with the pretty girl. In the meantime, Helen Lytton, who is a native of St. Louis, of which city she is a native, she was in great request for society functions, at which she gave classic readings and dances. She was widely known for these accomplishments both east and west, and deservedly popular wherever she shed the light of her loveliness and charm. It was with reluctance that her many friends in St. Louis heard of her decision to come to New York, but they have followed her career with pleasure and glory in her successes.

Miss Naomi Childers' principle achievements on the film screen, for which she has posed during the last year, are: "Hearts of Women," "Price of Vanity," "The Crucible of Fate," and "The Spirit in the Clay." On August 2 she will be seen in a comedy entitled "The Woe of a Waitress," and on August 31 in a comedy, "The Wrong Flat."

"Julius Caesar." George Kleine's film spectacle "Julius Caesar," to be shown at the Hippodrome theatre tomorrow, has come in for a vast deal of comment from stationmen and educators since its release. In addition to being the largest motion picture ever made in point of number of people employed and the time required to make it, "Julius Caesar" has exploded the oft-repeated fallacy that film cannot be made to instruct and amuse both children and parents. Educators have steadily contended that the "heart-interest" phases necessary from a theatrical standpoint make the average film undesirable for children. "Julius Caesar" has proven quite conclusively that historical accuracy, intense dramatic elements and a logical story are not only possible but can be linked together into an enchanting romance.

Maynard H. Harrison was a guest at a private exhibition of the big film in Chicago a week prior to its release. "I am amazed," said the mayor. "I wish that every man, woman and child in America could see 'Julius Caesar.' His sentiments were echoed by Peter Fuld's, president of the board of education of the Windy City.

"I am impressed with the artistic merits of the picture themselves," said Mr. Harrison, "and to me that everyone interested in Shakespeare's play, all students of Caesar's commentaries and everyone interested in history should find this film of great educational value. It shows us in a wonderful way the detail of Rome life and brings home to us the scenes and people of this classic as no other thing has been able to do since the development of the motion picture."

Since the release of the picture, the Kleine offices in Chicago have been inundated with requests from colleges, churches, and similar institutions for exhibition dates. George Kleine's "Quo Vadis," "Antony and Cleopatra," and "The Last Days of Pompeii" have been shown in many of the great educational institutions in every state in the union.

"The Tangle," four part Vitaphone "Made in Texas" feature, is the program today at the Hippodrome.

of her decision to come to New York, but they have followed her career with pleasure and glory in her successes. Miss Naomi Childers' principle achievements on the film screen, for which she has posed during the last year, are: "Hearts of Women," "Price of Vanity," "The Crucible of Fate," and "The Spirit in the Clay." On August 2 she will be seen in a comedy entitled "The Woe of a Waitress," and on August 31 in a comedy, "The Wrong Flat."

"Julius Caesar." George Kleine's film spectacle "Julius Caesar," to be shown at the Hippodrome theatre tomorrow, has come in for a vast deal of comment from stationmen and educators since its release. In addition to being the largest motion picture ever made in point of number of people employed and the time required to make it, "Julius Caesar" has exploded the oft-repeated fallacy that film cannot be made to instruct and amuse both children and parents. Educators have steadily contended that the "heart-interest" phases necessary from a theatrical standpoint make the average film undesirable for children. "Julius Caesar" has proven quite conclusively that historical accuracy, intense dramatic elements and a logical story are not only possible but can be linked together into an enchanting romance.

Maynard H. Harrison was a guest at a private exhibition of the big film in Chicago a week prior to its release. "I am amazed," said the mayor. "I wish that every man, woman and child in America could see 'Julius Caesar.' His sentiments were echoed by Peter Fuld's, president of the board of education of the Windy City.

"I am impressed with the artistic merits of the picture themselves," said Mr. Harrison, "and to me that everyone interested in Shakespeare's play, all students of Caesar's commentaries and everyone interested in history should find this film of great educational value. It shows us in a wonderful way the detail of Rome life and brings home to us the scenes and people of this classic as no other thing has been able to do since the development of the motion picture."

Since the release of the picture, the Kleine offices in Chicago have been inundated with requests from colleges, churches, and similar institutions for exhibition dates. George Kleine's "Quo Vadis," "Antony and Cleopatra," and "The Last Days of Pompeii" have been shown in many of the great educational institutions in every state in the union.

"The Tangle," four part Vitaphone "Made in Texas" feature, is the program today at the Hippodrome.

QUEEN.

"Kreutzer Sonata."

Herbert Brennon, the noted producer of "Neptune's Daughter," directs the William Fox screen work "Kreutzer Sonata." There is possibly no other director in the country so well endowed as Mr. Brennon, for the purpose of making a picturization of this powerful and noted book. Under his skilled hand the sombre shadows and the thrilling situations of the work are brought out so masterfully as to make "Kreutzer Sonata" in many respects the greatest picture play ever shown. Mr. Brennon has, naturally, markedly decided views on direction. He believes in working himself with the players under his generalship himself into each part, and bringing out every ounce of ability in the members of his company.

"I am a strong believer in the power of suggestion in moving picture directorship," he said in speaking of his views. "A director must infuse himself into each part of the story, which is best that is in those he is directing. Otherwise, according to my ideas, there is bound to be a lack of harmony and a lack of unity in the picture."

In a theory, at least, there should be no subtitles to break up the continuous thread of the story, which is relied upon to hold the attention of the spectators. Sub-titles interrupt the narrative and sometimes cause the moving picture to lose its effect. A superfluity of subtitles indicates a lazy director. It means that, in order to save himself the effort of keeping his scenario moving by legitimate means, he resorts to the slipshod method of slapping in a sub-title. There could not be a worse fault.

That is his essential idea, also, that the director should himself have been an actor; or at any rate have had stage experience in some way. In fact this is a sin-quan-non. The director should also be in sympathy with the subject of his scenario and with his people. It is impossible otherwise to get the best effects. Kreutzer Sonata I regard as the most powerful screen play I have ever directed. It is massive, compelling drama from the beginning to its strikingly dramatic end."

This picture will be shown at the Queen today.

NICKEL.

"The Night Operator at Buxton."

Although his daughter is desperately ill, Bob, an express messenger, fears to absent himself from duty. Knowing the child's condition, Helen volunteers to take Bob's place for the night. The express messenger accepts the girl's offer. Tracy, a member of the Blackhawk gang, learns that his chief plots to wreck the train. Dark Hollow for the purpose of securing the shipment of gold contained in the express car. Tracy, who owes a debt of gratitude to Helen, refuses to take part in the villainous scheme. Thrashed by Blackhawk, the man determines to obtain vengeance by betraying the band.

He carries his story to Bob. The latter immediately phones to the express superintendent. Accompanied by a posse, the latter boards a locomotive and pursues the train. Bob and Tracy commandeer an auto and make a dash for Dark Hollow. In the meantime, Helen discovers a tramp concealed in a chest in her car. Leveling a pistol at him, the girl makes him come forth. The tramp disarms her, but after a desperate struggle, Helen breaks from his grasp. A keg standing in a corner gives her the idea.

Springing towards it, Helen lights a match. She informs the terrified tramp that the keg contains gunpowder. Bob and Tracy arrive at Dark Hollow and flag the train. The tramp hops from the train but is captured after a desperate fight. The pursuing engine arrives and the posse capture Blackhawk and his gang just as they are about to explode a charge of dynamite under the rails.

The above picture and a comedy, "Winning Winsome Winnie," and "Love and Limb" will be shown at the Nickel today.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

(Reported by McLennan County Abstract Co.)

J. Williams to W. T. Clifton, 5 2-5 acres M. Martinez survey, $44.00.

W. H. Whitley et ux to H. Hanover, lot 4, block 67, McGregor, 2,000.00.

L. Craddock to V. E. Leskar, lot 4, block 28, Park View addition, 500.00.

R. B. Green to W. M. Williams, lots 4 and 5, block 6, C. W. White addition, 1,486.60.

N. Harris et ux to Mrs. V. A. LeCand et al, 159.96 acres G. McCoy survey, 157.00.

Total, $15,630.60.

Prof. Newby to Conduct Institute.

Temple, Tex., March 23.—Prof. W. B. Newby, principal of Reagan grammar school of this city, has been chosen as conductor of the Bell county Teachers' Normal Institute to be held at Belton in June of this year. Other members of the faculty will include Misses Georgia Phipps and Miriam LeCand, and Prof. J. F. Alsop of Willow Grove and Peyton Jacobs of Belton.

REX THEATRE

Today and other pictures Admission 5c.

Don't blow in a mule's ear unless you say Golden-Rod. For sale by all dealers. Cornforth Grain Co., distributors.—Adv.

HIPPODROME

MADE IN TEXAS BY VITAGRAPH

Good-bye

"The Tangle"

Last Day

Produced in and around the Hotel Galvez, Galveston. Original play by Col. Jasper E. Brady of Galveston. Presenting the famous Broadway Theater cast.

Naomi Childers Lillian Herbert L. Rogers Lytton Gladys James Chas. Wellesley And Other Stars

Troops in the production were guests of Dallas during the State Fair and used with full permission of the War Department.

Coming TOMORROW ONLY

Julius Caesar One Example is Worth a Thousand Arguments!

Has no rival. Even as the man stands alone in history, so does the film stand alone among famous pictures.

Master of spectacles, the mightiest of a long line headed by "Quo Vadis."

No advance in prices.

QUEEN THEATRE

ONLY MIRROR SCREEN IN WACO

Today and Tomorrow Friday and Saturday

William Fox presents Nance O'Neil, Theda Bara and William Shray in Count Leo Tolstoy's powerful drama

"KRUEZTER SONATA." Yes, it is better than "A Fool There Was." Dallas exhibitors state this to be the best show of the season.

Take advantage of the war rates and see these shows, the best on the market.

5c—ADMISSION—10c

The Euterbean Club

Presents Fritz Kreisler

Auditorium Theatre, Friday, March 26, 8:00 p. m.

Doors Open at 7:00 p. m.

Box Office Open March 25 and 26 at Powers-Kelly Drug Co.

At the Queen

MAJESTIC

Family Theatre

Tonight—Eight Successful Week

ADELAIDE IRVING And Players In

"My Boy Jim"

10c, 20c, 30c

MATINEE TODAY 3 P. M.

COZY THEATRE

Presents MISS BESSE DAINTY

In "A PLAY WITHOUT A NAME"

See the play and name it. For the best title given $25.00 will be presented to any boy, girl, man or woman. Send names in to box office with your address.

Prices 10c, 20c and 30c

